First Disabled U.S. POW's Head Home From Tokyo by Air

328 GI's Will Sail Tuesday From Inchon

First Group of Freed Prisoners Due To Hit West Coast Tomorrow

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Seventeen disabled but happy Americans left Tokyo tonight by plane for the United States, leaving behind grim months in North Korean prison camps.

Another 328 Americans boarded a Navy transport in Inchon harbor and will sail for home tomorrow. About 1,800 U. S. Marines returning home on regular rotation also are aboard the ship, the Gen. Nelson M. Walker.

The Big Air Force plane carrying the vanguard of more than 3,000 Americans scheduled to be liberated in the massive prisoner exchange took off from Tokyo's Haneda Airport at 7:07 p.m. (5:07 a.m., EST, Monday).

Although destination and landing time were not given, the transport probably will set down at Travis Air Force Base near San Francisco about noon Tuesday.

The ship probably will take about two weeks to cross the Pacific to Seattle or San Francisco.

Monday saw 389 more Allied soldiers return from North Korean stockades—laughing, happy Americans, British and Turks, and 89 South Koreans, many of them human wrecks.

Panmunjom's mood swung sharply between sadness and gaiety Monday, depending on what nationality was on the trucks.

The 125 American s and 25 Turks all appeared in good condition. The British, 50 in all, were in excellent spirit.

But there were grim faces among tough U. S. Marines who unloaded Red ambulances loaded with wasted, emaciated ROK soldiers.

And cynical Communist press Photographers largely stayed away since the South Korean living dead offered no propaganda possibilities for them.

There were 200 non-Koreans exchanged Monday. It was the first day that more non-Koreans than ROKs have been returned. Early Monday the Reds suddenly announced they were substituting 25 more Americans and 25 more British for 50 South Koreans. Whether this was merely a mixup in the Red schedule or had some deeper significance remained to be seen.

There was speculation the Reds made the sudden switch to avoid

Bucyrus Prisoner Freed

BUCYRUS—Word has been received that a Bucyrus service man is among U.N. prisoners of war released by the Communists in Korea. He is Cpl. Elijah H. Smith, 27, who was listed as missing in action Dec. 1, 1950, while serving with Battery B, 503rd Field Artillery Bn., part of the 20th Division. His mother is Mrs. Nannie Smith. He entered the U. S. Army in 1949.

U.S. Studies Reds' Claims to H-Bomb

By FRANK E. CAREY
By Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The next week or so could be a tense watch-and-wait period for American officials scanning the atmosphere for proof of Russia's boast that it has the dread hydrogen bomb.

This follows from the unofficial view of a well-known atomic scientist, Dr. Ralph Lapp of Washington, D. C., that:

1. Russia may actually have done a "small scale" test of a primitive H-bomb late last week—small scale insofar as the hydrogen end of it, but conceivably involving a triggering atomic bomb 10 times as powerful as the one dropped on Nagasaki.

2. By Lapp's own estimate it would take at least a week for radio-activity detection devices to verify such an event. While the United States has never said how it detected the first Russian A-blast in 1949, Lapp suggested America's nationwide system for scenting the atmosphere from radio activity from Nevada tests probably has "global arms extending right up to the Iron Curtain."

Russian Premier Georgi Malenkov's announcement to the Soviet Parliament Saturday that "the "United States no longer has the monopoly of the hydrogen bomb" continued to set off shock waves of reaction throughout the free world.

Most of it was on the skeptical side, but there were many expressions that it at least could be true.

One effect of Malenkov's announcement was to jar loose what seemed like confirmation of speculation that the United States has unlocked the secret of the H-bomb.

Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa), a member of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee, in voicing suspicion of the Russian claim, said: "Why, we didn't know we had one ourselves until last October when we exploded a Hydrogen device."

Rep. Hinshaw (D-Calif), also a committee member, said "We mastered production of the hydrogen bomb and all other aspects of it a year ago, so it is not surprising that the Russians claim to have developed it now."

Another member, Rep. Durham (D-NC), did not make such a flat statement as these. But he said the committee realized Russia's H-bomb potential long ago—"that is the reason we worked so hard last year to double this country's capacity to produce the hydrogen bomb."

Sen. Clinton Anderson (D-NM), also a member, said he considered it a "definite possibility" that Russia has the H-bomb. Rep. Cole (R-NY), committee chairman, said at his home in Bath, N. Y.: "We cannot gamble that it is not true."

Sen. Duff (R-Pa), who is not a member of the committee, said on an NBC television show last night he does not believe the Russians have the H-bomb but "we know we have the bomb."

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), committee vice chairman, said only that America is far ahead of Russia or any other nation in nuclear development, but he cautioned: "Better overestimate their strength rather than underestimate it."

President Eisenhower had no comment on Malenkov's announcement, and in Denver, where the President is vacationing, his aides said no comment was expected.

The nearest approach to an official claim that America had the H-bomb came from former President Truman in his State of the Union message to Congress last January. Referring to the 1951-52 tests at Eniwetok Atoll in the Pacific, Truman said:

"We have entered another stage in the world-shaking development of atomic energy. From now on, man moves into a new era of destructive power, capable of creating explosions of a new order of magnitude dwarfing the mushroom clouds of Hiroshima and Nagasaki."

Dr. Lapp, who worked on the original Manhattan Project which produced the first A-bomb, is now a private consultant on atomic energy.

He told this reporter he believed Russia's H-bomb test, if there was

Council To Get Plans for New City Building

Plans contemplating use of the Marion City Hospital for a city hall or the possible construction of a new city hall may be presented to City Council at its meeting tonight by Mayor Harold F. Robinson.

Choice between the two alternates may depend on whether or not state inspectors will approve the present hospital for use as a city hall after completion of the new General Hospital, he explained.

Tentative plans outlined by the mayor call for using the hospital building providing the cost of remodeling and fire proofing to meet present fire rules can be met.

If the cost is excessive, Mayor Robinson said he would propose a new city hall be built on the city parking lot at the corner of S. Prospect and W. Church Sts. As envisioned by Mayor Robinson this would be a four-story building, including a basement, with the upper two stories designed as parking lots. Purpose of this would be to pay for the building from fees charged for parking, Mayor Robinson said.

Plans for this building are being drawn along with proposed methods of financing and the estimated cost of the building by a local architectural firm, he said.

Whether or not these plans are presented to Council tonight may depend on whether inspectors from the state fire marshal's office report on their investigation of the fire safety of the old hospital building.

In other business tonight, Council will consider authorizing placing of a three-fourths mill levy for city operating expenses on the November ballot, and an ordinance fixing the fee for city taxicab driver's licenses. There are 10 other pieces of legislation up for consideration at tonight's meeting.

All 24 Missing U.S. Fliers Found After C119 Falls in Libya

Airmen Leap From Plane Over Desert

Crew at First Thought Down in Sea Enroute To Tripoli From Italy

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—All 24 men who parachuted from their disabled C119 Flying Boxcar over the Libyan Desert Saturday night have been found alive, the U. S. Air Force's European headquarters said here today.

Twenty-one of the airmen were found earlier today. The other three were spotted later by an air rescue party.

The plane crashed in the desert 60 miles south of the big U. S. Air Force Base at Wheelus Field, Tripoli.

The survivors were taken by helicopter and ground rescue teams to the Air Force hospital at Wheelus.

Some of the survivors suffered cuts and bruises and ankle injuries as a result of the jump.

Reports of the crash were received by radio at the Air Force's European headquarters here.

An Air Force spokesman said the name of the survivors probably would be released later.

The plane, carrying a crew of 6 and 18 passengers, was on a flight across the Mediterranean from Udine, Italy, to Wheelus Field, the big Air Force base near Tripoli.

Earlier reports said the craft crashed in the sea and five survivors had been picked up, but the wreckage and the survivors were spotted in the desert today from the air by Col. Royal Anthis, commander of the Wheelus air base.

As a possible explanation of the earlier reports, the Air Force said it believed "sea turtles and orange crates in the water were mistakenly taken for rafts and the missing airmen."

U.S. Population Hits 160 Million

Census Bureau Clock Strikes at 10:02 A.M.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The population of the United States reached 160 million persons at 7 seconds after 10:02 a. m. EST today, according to the Commerce Department population clock, and kept right on gaining at the rate of one each 12 seconds.

The statistical clock's recording of the event was witnessed by a crowd of about 100 Commerce Department officials, newsmen and passersby in the lobby of the department's building here.

The population clock is a huge, 10-foot high device set up by the Census Bureau to measure population losses and gains. It works on the basis of Census Bureau estimates that there is 1 birth each 8 seconds, 1 death each 21 seconds, 1 immigrant each 2 minutes, 1 emigrant each 17 minutes for a net gain of 1 person every 12 seconds.

Longshoremen Called Before Council of AFL

Clean Up or Get Out, Crime-Ridden Dock Union Leaders Told

CHICAGO (AP)—The AFL Executive Council held an ouster threat over its crime-laden East Coast waterfront workers union today at a showdown hearing on cleanup demands.

Joseph P. Ryan, lifetime president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, was expected to defend his 65,000-member organization from charges of harboring criminal elements and to claim the ILA already has launched its own purge.

The AFL council, all-powerful ruling agency of the 10 million member AFL, was reported lukewarm about the embattled union's purity plans and about to kick the ILA out of the AFL.

The ILA has been pleading for a chance to hold a series of trials to determine whether ILA leaders with criminal or racketeer backgrounds should continue at their jobs, but the AFL was reported skeptical of the plan as long as the 69-year-old Ryan, himself under indictment for stealing union funds, is kept at the union's helm.

This is the first case involving charges of union corruption within the AFL since George Meany won the AFL presidency, succeeding the late William Green last fall. Meany reportedly is determined to make a lesson of the ILA for other AFL unions.

At any rate, the states of New York and New Jersey have enacted legislation to clean the East Coast waterfront of racketeers in a bi-state compact to license dock workers in the future. The legisla-

Auto Accidents In Marion and Area Injure 10

Four Hurt in Crash On County Road; Four Others in Morrow

Ten persons were injured over the week end in a total of 12 traffic mishaps investigated by Marion County sheriff's department and state highway patrolmen.

Darold Hawk, 32, of 537½ E. Farming St., driver of the car, and three passengers were taken to Marion City Hospital after their car crashed into an iron bridge on Marion County Road 106, one and nine-tenths miles west of Route 23, at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Hawk suffered cuts on the face and head. Passengers in the car, Ray Butcher, 25, of the Dixie Hotel, Marion, sustained lacerations of the face and is in "fair" condition at the hospital; James Montgomery, 27, of Detroit, Mich., broken nose and multiple cuts on the face; and Jean Thompson, 25, of 148 Union St., bruises on the face. All the injured but Butcher were treated and released.

Both state highway patrolmen from the Marion post and the county sheriff's department investigated the accident. The injured were taken to City Hospital by a passing motorist.

Hawk told sheriff's deputies that

Joyride of Six Indiana Youths Ends in Crash

A joyride in a stolen car came to an abrupt end Saturday morning near Crestline for six youths, three of them from a boys' home in Indiana.

Driver of the car was a 14-year-old resident of Hoosier Town, a boys' boarding home, in Crown Point, Ind.

The boy lost control of the vehicle on a sharp curve on U. S. Route 30-N, three-tenths mile west of Crestline about 7:10 a.m. Saturday. The car swerved off the left side of the highway, went back across the road and crashed off the right side into a tree. The auto was a total loss.

Injured were: Philip Villano, the driver, body bruises; and passengers, Leon Jovas, 16, of Gary, Ind., broken back and lacerations on the face and head; Alex Zuran, 14, of Hoosier Town, body bruises; John Dull, 16, of Hoosier Town, body bruises; Robert Knapp, 23, of Laconia, N. H., right shoulder and arm bruises. All were taken to Crestline Emergency Hospital in the Crestline police department cruiser.

Police, Liquor Agents Arrest 4 in Club Raid

Employes of Moose Lodge Charged With Illegal Sunday Sales

A raid by Ohio Department of Liquor Enforcement agents and Marion police at the Moose Lodge club rooms at 152 N. Main St. Sunday night resulted in the arrest of four persons.

Those arrested and the charges against them were Joseph Patrick McGary, 40, of 168 Patten St., keeper of a place for the illegal sale of alcoholic beverages and having possession of gambling devices; Donald E. Bassler, 23, of 474 Silver St., selling alcoholic beverages illegally; Reba D. Darby of the Snyder Hotel, selling alcoholic beverages illegally; and Harold J. Richards, 43, of 473 Avondale Ave., disorderly conduct.

At their appearance in Marion Municipal Court this morning all pleaded not guilty and trial was set for 9 a.m. on Aug. 27.

Bonds for appearance for the trial were set as follows by Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen: McGary, two bonds, $300 on each charge; Bassler and Darby, $100 each, and Richards, $50.

Three liquor enforcement agents and officers of the 3 to 11 p.m. shift of the Marion police department cooperated in the raid and took possession of a large number of whiskey bottles and a number of gambling devices such as punchboards and fish bowls in which slips of paper with numbers are placed, Police Chief Coon reported.

The raid last night came about as the result of recent investigations by the liquor agents, they said.

$45 and Merchandise Taken in 2 Burglaries

Two break-ins with theft of $45 in one of them were reported to Marion police over the week end.

Sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning the front door of Samilson's Inc., women's clothing store at 140 W. Center St. was forced open and some $45 was taken from a cash drawer. The break-in was discovered at 12:02 p.m. Sunday by a passerby.

At 3 p.m. Sunday, James Schlairet of the E. A. Schlairet Transfer Co. of 324 Lincoln Ave. discovered one of the company's truck trailers broken into. Preliminary investigation disclosed that eight cartons of chewing tobacco and two quarts of paint were stolen.

Dulles Reports To President On Korea Trip

Says U.S. May Take Retaliatory Steps On POW Holdouts

DENVER (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said after a conference with President Eisenhower today the United States probably would adopt "reciprocal measures" if the Communists refuse to return some American prisoners of war.

Dulles left no doubt at a news conference he meant this country would take retaliatory steps if prisoners are withheld in violation of the armistice terms.

The secretary arrived at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters this morning after an overnight nonstop flight from Honolulu on the way back from South Korea, where he conferred with the president of that Republic, Synghman Rhee.

Dulles was with Eisenhower for about 70 minutes. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief of the U.S. mission to the United Nations, and Asst. Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson — both of whom accompanied Dulles to Korea — sat in at today's conference.

Dulles told newsmen he gave Eisenhower "a very full report" on his talks with Rhee. The secretary then noted a communique released before he left Korea had said that the South Koreans had given "categorical assurance" that they won't upset the newly-won armistice.

Dulles volunteered the information that he had been most impressed by what he saw of the exchange of prisoners of war at Freedom Village while he was in Korea.

The Cabine otfficer went on to say he witnessed the first exchange and that some of the United Nations forces exchanged were "in a rather dazed condition" and

Will Preach Communism

'Progressives' on Way Home To Spread Word

FREEDOM VILLAGE (AP)—Americans freed from Red prison stockades said today Red-indoctrinated U. S. prisoners are among those returning — including 30 "progressives" en route home to preach communism in the United States.

Cpl. Leslie E. Scales, 22 of Folsomville, Ind., said the 30 were members of his 306-man company at Camp 5 in Pyoktong on the Yalu River.

Most of the men in the company were anti-Red, he said in an interview at Inchon, but he knew the 30 personally.

Other repatriated prisoners have told of Americans who collaborated with the Reds, but only Scales told of repatriates returning to work for communism in America.

Scales said he had heard the 30 talk about joining organizations called the "Ex-POWs for Peace" and the "Veterans for Peace," but he did not know if they had been formed.

Scales said he did not know if the "progressives" planned to join the Communist party in America, but said he heard them talk of a reunion at the home of a friend in San Francisco to discuss their next moves.

Cpl. Harold Wilson, 32, of Mobile, Ala., said one prisoner—considered the "No. 1 progressive" in Camp 5 — had said he would "kill

Poor Health No Handicap

Muncie, Ind., Boy Wins National Derby in Akron

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Freddy Mohler of Muncie, Ind., barred by his health from most boyhood sports, headed home today as king of the nation's soap boxers.

The 14-year-old, 93-pound youngster, pounding out the five fastest times of the day, defeated 150 other teen-agers from 40 states, Alaska and Germany in the 16th All-American Soap Box Derby here yesterday.

Two years ago Freddy had a thyroid ailment which physicians thought might be fatal. He's a lot better now, but he still can't play the active, outdoor games that most boys enjoy.

That, he said, was what made him decide to become a soap box driver. It took him five weeks, often working into the night, to get his racer in shape for the derby. "I guess I was too busy to get sick," he grinned.

For his victory Freddy received a $5,000 college scholarship. Although he'll just be entering grade 9B in Wilson Junior High School next month, he's made up his mind about college.

He said he'd attend Ball State Teachers College in his home town, and become an industrial arts teacher. His dad, Ernest R. Mohler, is a school building custodian in Muncie.

Freddy was under 28 seconds for all five of his heats down the 975.4-foot runway, and he was the

Million-Dollar Mark Reached In City Payroll

Addition of three new policemen and two new firemen to the Marion Police and Fire Departments will boost the total payroll by some $180,000 a year, according to an estimate by Auditor Elmer Shaw.

Coupled with pay boosts granted city employes by City Council in February, this will increase the total payroll to something over one-million dollars, he said.

Last year city employes, including the 15 elected officials, were paid salaries and wages totaling $918,220 and the pay raise alone adds about $70,000 a year to this amount, Shaw said.

Normally the city employs an average of 300 persons. This figure fluctuates slightly from week to week. Most of the change is in the number of City Hospital employes, which ranges from around 125 to 135 with an average of 130.

Highest paid position in the city is that of the Safety-Service Director with a yearly salary of $7,500 while the lowest paid are aides at the hospital with a daily wage rate of $6,35.

Of the total number, some 89 employes are paid from the general fund. These include police, fire, engineering, and safety-service department employes, and employes in the Board of Health, auditor's office, and the city clerk's office.

The hospital workers are paid from the hospital fund and the remaining 80 or so city employes are paid from various other funds such as veteran's housing fund, gasoline tax and motor vehicle license fund, and sanitation department fund.

Applications Available for Aid To Prospective Ohio Teachers

Applications for scholarship aid provided by legislation enacted during the 100th General Assembly are now available at the office of D. T. Mills superintendent of Marion County Schools.

These scholarships have been set up by the assembly to pay $500 for two years to high school graduates who take elementary education courses in college.

The money is not given to the prospective teacher. It is in the form of a loan. If the student teaches in Ohio public schools at the completion of his college training, the loans are cancelled and are treated as gifts.

If the student does not teach in Ohio public schools at the end of his education, the grant must be repaid at five per cent interest.

The only restrictions as to those who are eligible for the grants are that he or she must be in the upper half of the high school graduating class, must show a need for financial help, and must attend one of the 21 colleges or or universities cooperating in the program.

Prospective applicants must return the application blanks before Aug. 20. That is the date set for the meeting of the special committee which will determine which applicants will receive the grants. At least three from Marion County may be chosen for the aid. If other counties do not have three applicants, they may allow Marion or any other county in the state to use their unfilled quotas.

The committee chosen to select Marion County students to receive aid is composed of Mills, Cecil Gabler, principal of Harding High School, Miss Clara Alice Wilson, principal of Pearl Street School, and one other member yet to be named by Mills.

Students desiring more complete information and application blanks should contact the Superintendent of County Schools Office in the Marion County Court House. Graduates of any first grade high schools public or private are eligible for the grants.

Purpose of the bill is to relieve the pressing need for elementary teachers which is facing Ohio school systems at the present time. The grants are for a one year period and may be renewed at the end of the first year.

City Stop Signs Get New Look

Will Be Painted In Red and Silver

Street intersection stop signs in Marion will take on a new look during the next few weeks.

Safety-Service Director Ralph E. Forrest said today all present octagonal-shaped stop signs will be replaced with 482 octagonal signs in a new color scheme.

The present signs are yellow with black letters. The new signs will be painted in the international danger color—red—with the letters in silver paint.

The new signs will be more highly visible to motorists at night by the addition of thousands of tiny glass spheres which reflect light. These will be sprinkled on the paint while it is still wet.

George Huffman, city painter, is preparing the new stop signs and they will be erected as soon as possible.

Forrest said that some states on the east coast already are converting or have converted to the new red and silver stop signs.

He said he believes the Ohio State Department of Highways is also preparing to change all stop signs on state routes to the new color scheme.

"Marion is one of the first towns in the state to start this change to the new colors," Forrest said. Motorists will be more apt to notice the new signs because of the bright red color "which always means danger," he added.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alakline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

1847 Corn Planter Will Be Shown in Sesqui Parade, Fair

A 106-year-old corn planter, well preserved and in good working order, is owned by a Marion County man, Charles Almendinger of near Prospect. The antique two-row planter will appear in the Marion County Sesquicentennial parade, then will be on display during the eight days of the State Fair.

Manufactured in 1847 at Davenport, Ia., by George B. Selby, it is believed to be the only one of its type in Ohio. Almendinger acquired it about six months ago from George Smith at a public sale in Meeker. He is a collector of relics, glassware, china, furniture, and guns.

The century-old wooden farm implement will be part of the parade float arranged by the AFL. A modern four-row all-steel corn planter will be included in the float.

All of the 1847 planter is of wood except rims of the wheels and the shoes. A seat for the driver is back and above a seat on which a boy perched to work the lever dropping the corn into the rows.

Up to 23,000 Men To Be Called Monthly

Korean Truce Has No Effect on Status of Draft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the halt in Korean fighting, the burden of required military service on the nation's young men hasn't changed.

Those in uniform can't expect to get out ahead of time. Those awaiting military call can expect to serve as long as if the fighting had continued.

To back up this outlook, Defense Department and selective service officials said in interviews today:

Draft calls will go out at about the same rate as had been planned before the shooting stopped — between 19,000 and 23,000 calls during each of the next 11 months. No plans have been made to shorten present tours of active duty, except for surplus officers on voluntary tours.

The demand from the armed forces for re-enlistments and enlistments will remain about the same, or greater.

There are no plans to ease deferment policies.

At the root of this situation is the nation's defense planning, which calls for continuing the armed forces at nearly the Korean War level—a 3,300,000 total. This figure does represent a cut of about 200,000 men in the size of the armed forces between now and next July 1. But it's a cut which was planned long before the Korean truce and will not be reflected by changes in today's manpower needs.

The Korean truce will make only one essential change in the military manpower picture. A 50,000-man cut in the size of the Army and a 5,000-man cut in the Marine Corps are planned which otherwise wouldn't have been made. These stem from a reduction in combat replacements that were needed to keep an effective figthing force in Korea.

To some degree, the 50,000 cut in the Army's strength will be reflected in smaller draft calls. Just when and how, however, is an open question now. This accounts for the scheduled draft calls for the coming months varying between 19,000 and 23,000 men.

Taking into account the 55,000 reduction, the planned sizes of the four armed forces by next July 1 are: Army, 1,370,000; Navy, 745,000; Air Force, 960,000; Marine Corps, 225,000.

To maintain these forces, about 875,000 men will have to re-enlist, enlist or be drafted to replace men who will complete their tours of service by next July 1. Plans include the drafting of about 275,000 men, the re-enlistment of 200,000 men and the enlistment of about 300,000. About 100,000 reserves and officers are scheduled to be called as replacements. These figures are only estimates.

If expectations in other categories don't materialize, draft calls will have to move up. Last year there were 170,000 re-enlistments and 380,000 enlistments, so the department shouldn't be too far off in its estimates.

After next July 1 the Defense Department and selective service expect a number of changes in the manpower picture. Chances are the Defense Department will jump draft calls to about 45,000 a month, selective service will make some changes in draft regulations and both will be scurrying to make sure enough draftable men will be available to meet defense needs.

This all depends, however, on whether the international situation gets better or worse. Of course, a changeover to a plan of universal military training (UMT) would cause considerable revamping of most military manpower planning.

However, if the size of the armed forces continues at 3,300,000 after next July 1, the draft calls will inevitably go up to about 45,000 a month because of increase releases from active duty.

And there will be a shorter supply of young men who can be called into service. The supply has been dwindling not only because of heavy demands made during the Korean War, but because during the depression of the 1930s the number of babies born—today's youth—was declining.

About the only solution for this shortage would be to change draft policies and lower the physical and mental standards for draft and enlistment. This would mean many men not now eligible for service could be used.

Selective service is eyeing the possibility of making now-deferred fathers after Aug. 25 will be subject to the draft unless deferred would add about 1,135,000 men to the eligibles. Those who became fathers after Aug. 2 will be subject to the draft unless deferred for other reasons.

By a change in the draft mental and physical requirements, selective service could have another look at the 1½ million draft-age young men who are now 4F.

The number of men in the other draft - deferred categories—occupational, student, alien, etc. — is small, and the deferments usually temporary.

Of course, a change in the age limit for drafting or lengthening of the required draft service might be made. But these are drastic measures that would have to be initiated by Congress and would be a last resort.

Marionite Visits Brazil

EXPLAINING THE FINE ART of a Brazilian churrasco, or plain ol' American barbecue, to Midshipman Third Class Paul B. Cusick of Marion is Senorita Waldice Faleiros of Sao Paulo, Brazil. Cusick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Cusick of 201 E. Mark St.

The international meeting took place recently when half of the 1953 Midshipman Practice Squadron visited Santos, Brazil. The American Society of Sao Paulo, 12th largest city in the world, asked some of the American sailors to attend the gathering.

Midshipman Cusick was serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Albany as part of the practical training he must have to become a Naval officer. In the third class at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., he was to arrive back at Norfolk, Va., Wednesday and will come home on leave during the remainder of the month.

A graduate of St. Mary High School in 1949, he joined the Navy in August of that year, taking his boot training at San Diego, Calif. He graduated from electronics school at the Naval Air Technical Training Center at Memphis, Tenn., and then was sent back to San Diego where he was assigned to a squadron. Shortly later he was appointed to the Academy by the Navy and he attended prep school in Bainbridge, Md., one year before beginning school at Annapolis.

R. T. Lewis To Report On Rotary Convention

R. T. Lewis, Marion Rotary Club delegate to the international convention in Paris this year, will give a report of his activities at the Rotary meeting Tuesday at Hotel Harding.

Lewis was also a delegate to some of his experiences, both during and after the convention. He made an extensive tour of Europe while he was there and played golf on some of the internationally famous courses.

Lewis was alo a delegate to the convention in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 1948 and made a similar report to the club after his return from that meeting.

We the Constituents

We, the paid-up members of the Society To Form a More Perfect Union, do acknowledge herewith that the first session of Congress No. 83 did about as well as we were willing to let it do.

We, the constituents of the congressmen who are shortly to return home with their posthole diggers and wire-cutters must acknowledge in all humility that we fenced them in more often that we let them run loose.

We wanted economy for the purpose of reducing our dues to the More Perfect Union, but we did not want any nonsense about cutting out any local spending such as might fatten and sweeten local affairs.

We wanted prudence but we shuddered at the possibility that prudence might leave us one horsehoe nail shy in the event of a battle which might be lost for want of a horseshoe nail.

We wanted representative democracy preserved in all its numerous and fascinating aspects, but it galled us unbearably when certain persons exercised their inalienable right to oppose what we thought was meritorious.

We abhorred the practice of twisting arms to get results, except when the arms to be twisted belonged to our political opponents and we were doing the twisting.

We gave lip service to the principle that a congressman should vote according to his conscience but were burned to a crisp when the fellow's conscience was at variance with our own much more reliable consciences.

With few exceptions, we either did not let our representatives and senators know what was on our minds at all, or we confined our communications to urgent commands and strident squawks. But we blamed them freely for not reflecting what right-thinking people back home were thinking.

We talked a great deal about our responsbility as citizens of the republic but we did as little about accepting responsibility as possible. In all things and in all ways we reserved the right to boo the umpire and make cutting remarks about the players but we never strode to the plate with two out and the bases loaded.

Reserving the right to do likewise in the future, we half regret what we haven't done in the past and hope our representatives and senators, bless them and their ayes and noes, will have as pleasant a dog days, autumn and early winter as their constituents will let them.

Atrocities Against Prisoners

It is the story of World War II and Japanese abuse of prisoners all over again—the accounts of atrocities committed against United States and United Nations prisoners in the Korean War.

Major offenders were the North Koreans, fired up with zeal because of their indoctrination by the Russian Communists who needled them into starting the war.

The Chinese remained true to their traditional character whenever they were let alone. While their ordinary standard of living, like that of the Japanese is so low it amounts to atrocity conditions in comparison with western standards, the Chinese are not maliciously cruel

In the war with Japan, the United States learned to expect the worst as far as prisoner tretment was concerned. The Japanese had been over-stimulated by jingoists until the very sight of a white man infuriated them. Moreover, their living standards were so low that even ordinary treatment in a prison camp amounted to starvation and maltreatment of U. S. prisoners.

No one ever imagined that atrocities were not being committed against prisoners taken by the North Koreans and Chinese in the Korean War. If the revelation of the atrocities actually committed exceeds expectations, it is because only a diseased imagination could conjure up anything as horrible as man's inhumanity to man multiplied by Communist zeal and Asia's growing hatred of white men from the Occident.

It's a Fascinating Idea

A bee expert at North Carolina State College, W. H. Stephen, now has his colleagues buzzing with a honey of discovery about these winged creatures.

Mr. Stephen contends that "bees are like some people." He goes on:

"Once they learn to do anything in a certain way, they continue to do it that same way for a long time. When they learn the location of the hive, they will return there although the hive has been moved."

However, it seems that habits too firm can handicap both bees and humans, and Mr. Stephen thinks he has an answer for the bees, anyhow, by using nitrous oxide, the "laughing gas" offered by some dentists as an anesthetic. Mr. Stephen puts some ammonium nitrate, a common fertilizer base, into a smoker gadget along with fuel, and nitrous oxide comes out. The bees don't laugh, but "they forget everything they knew and were doing, and start life anew."

Some people may murmur a polite "So what?" to this discovery. However, some other persons might wonder sweetly if the idea couldn't be adapted to human beings. The idea has some happy aspects. To take a whiff of some gas, or swallow a certain pill, and break off all habits, wipe out all memories, and really start life anew, could be fascinating.

Man Not Really Master

By Jerry Klein

Lower Forms of Life Exercise Control

One of Britain's best - known scientists said the other day that man is proving himself the master of such lower forms of life as bacteria.

Dr. K. A. Bissett of Birmingham University said that one evidence of man's mastery is that the power of bacteria to inflict serious and widespread disease "seems to have been overcome."

Perhaps it has. But these so-called lower forms of life still pack enough power to lay man low every chance they get. They've set off guns, knocked down airplanes and even caused a train wreck!

For instance, man is supposed to have dominion over the fowl of the air. But in Buffalo, N. Y., not long ago, a pheasant flew into the windshild of a moving automobile. The driver lost control of the car and was killed.

A flock of seagulls flew into a French airliner, knocking out two of its engines. Thirty-seven passengers died in the crash.

A Cocker Spaniel riding in a truck in Toledo, O., fell against a loaded shotgun as the vehicle rounded a sharp curve. The gun went off and killed the dog's master.

In Bombay, India, 24 persons lost their lives in a bus accident caused by a snake. The reptile was in a basket, but it escaped as the bus jolted along a jungle road and squirmed toward the driver. He got so panicky that the bus crashed into a canyon.

An 18-inch lizard derailed a freight train near Melbourne, Australia. It ran up the trouser leg of a railway guard, scaring him so badly that he threw the wrong switch.

Man may or may not be a brother to the ape, but there was nothing brotherly about the behavior of an ape in a St. Louis zoo. No sooner it was trained to drive a motor scooter than it ran the scooter over the animal trainer.

Man also is supposed to hold sway over the fish of the sea, but a fish proved to be the undoing of a man in Edwardsburg, Mich. He was hauling a four-pound pickerel out of the water when it seized his leg. It took quite a while for two other fishermen to pry the fish loose.

In Baltimore, a pet rabbit hopped onto the trigger of a .22-caliber rifle and shot its master in the arm. And a similar stunt was pulled in Lueneburg, Germany, by a pig. It this case, maybe the pig could plead self-defense—its victim was a butcher.

The weather was too hot for sleeping indoors in New Albany, Miss., so a couple moved their eight-months-old daughter into the yard. A swarm of ants bit the child to death. In London, a baby boy was frightened to death by a butterfly which landed on his face.

One final indication that the lower forms of life often put man on the ropes recently came directly from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The chief of the Insect Bureau announced that there's no point in the government spending any more money to combat the Japanese Beetle.

And why not? Has the plant-destroying bug at last been thoroughly exterminated?

Not at all. The agriculture official said we might just as well surrender, because the Japanese Beetle is so powerful it will chew its way wherever it pleases, no matter what man tries to do about it.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

A. D. Woolley, who served as treasurer of Marion County from 1861 to 1863, was the only Republican to fill the office from 1825 to 1895. During that period one Whig, David Jenkins, was elected to the office, serving from 1829 to 1833. Others holding the office were Democrats. They were: Adam Uncapher, Richard Wilson, Alexander Sharp, A. D. Matthews, John King, Isaac Young, George Diegle, A. D. Mathews, Peter Beerbower, Julias Strelitz, Thomas Dixon, George W. Cook and Charles W. Leffler.

State in Miniature

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The city is looking for new quarters for the spectacular panoramic relief model of California exhibited in the nave of the Ferry building at the foot of historic Market St. The building is to be remodeled for other purposes. The map is 600 feet long and 17½ feet wide and required 14 months of labor by engineers, draftsmen, sculptors, geographers and artists. Immense amounts of material were used—2,500 square feet of plate glass for instance. It has 800,000 hand-carved miniature buildings.

No Sad Memories, Please

By MARK DANA

It is fitting to pause for a station announcement and to take due note of top-level tinkering going on in the Radio Corp. of America laboratories at Princeton, N. J.

Wise men there have been grieved because new-fangled electronic computing machines, fairly familiar to ordinary folk at least from description, do not reliably remember details along the way as they swiftly calculate problems running into the trillions or worse. Even a school teacher expects Little Mary to explain her steps in long division and to justify, not merely announce, results.

One thing the RCA experts wanted was to examine sub-totals such as provided on a common adding machine. It seems the intricate electronics computers tended to "forget" some earlier steps as they clicked on toward final sums, and what the savants now have done is to equip their man-made machines with "memories."

They have adapted cross-grids of electrified wires and 10,000 tiny solenoid magnets, plus some other things which only an Einstein could understand, and developed a gadget which can store 10,000 bits of data in its electrified brain.

That, of course, is much more than the average human brain can remember, although a friend or spouse who suddenly becomes angry can recall nearly that number of faults and misdeeds of the party arousing that wrath. The RCA machine can "recall" an item of information within a few millionths of one second, which also is a challenge to persons who think of a bright retort next day.

Unfortunately, all the widely-heralded electronic computing machines seem to be destined for stratoshheric mathemtics—figuring distances to stars, testing aspects of the theory of relativity, calculating tonnage of chemicals in the sea, and such things.

A machine which will do simple arithmetic (on check stubs to prevent bank over-drafts, for instance) and remember whether it was Aunt Martha of Cousin Sue who gave the vase for Christmas—a gadget small enough for a purse—now there's a real need.

Elephants reputedly recall who gave them peanuts last year, and the family cat never forgets an irritated kick. Scientists inventors have been lauded generously for a few nice appliances. Pocket-size remembering machines are a major need, and we're going to write RCA and say so. What did we do with our fountain pen?

German Army Breaks With Tradition

By Norman Lindhurst

BONN

A year ago—even six months ago—anyone seeking an interview with Theodore Blank inevitably was given a polite brushoff.

Blank was a mystery man, since, as the chief of Chancellor Adenauer's shadow Defense Ministry, he had the job of preventing the remnants of the old German General Staff from moving in on German rearmament and taking over.

The issue at stake: How "new" and how "democratic" was to be the "new democratic German army."

This is the situation on Blank and his job: a former lieutenant in the German army, Blank made a record not as a military man but as a rough-and-tumble labor organizer in the Ruhr coal fields for the Weimar Republican's Christian trade unions. In fact, he was conscripted into the Wehrmacht and has never made any secret of the fact that, like most trade unionists, he distrusts the military.

When Adenauer tapped Blank for the ticklish task of rearming Germany, Blank was a member of the Bundestag, the German house of commons, representing the hard boiled Ruhr constituency of Oberhausen. In fact, Blank still retains his parliamentary seat.

It was generally accepted that Blank was a "showcase" appointment. Adenauer's acknowledged motive was to pick a man apparently representing the antithesis of German militarism, and thus make the bitter pill of German remilitarization more palatable to her distrustful neighbors, particularly the French.

Blank's office is cramped, threadbare and overlooking a cheerless courtyard. The defense minister is short, hard and has a jutting jaw. He looks like he might have been a middleweight boxer, and he is as direct.

"You fire the questions, and I'll answer them. If I can't I'll send you to my experts who can," Blank said.

Blank is a man without ostentation.

Will the new German army be democratic?

"We are going to build a citizens army which will represent a complete break with the old German militaristic tradition. Our officers and soldiers will wear civilian clothing off duty, and they will be permitted to vote and exercise all the other rights and duties of citizenship while serving their call-up period," Blank stated firmly.

When German rearmament was broached a few years ago, most Germans, it seemed, cried "ohne mich"—without me — to the proposal that Germany aid the West defend itself against Soviet aggression. Now?

"I have 75,000 applications for enlistment in the new German armed forces. Half the applications are from officers and non-commissioned officers of the former German armed forces, but the remainder are from German youth.

"You have my word for it 'ohne mich' is dead. The people have recovered their mental health. Some days I receive over 1,000 applications," Blank declares proudly.

Blank believes that the vast majority of Germans now accept without reservation the necessity for German participation in Western defense. He is not so naive, however, as to believe that volunteers will flock in without a little prodding.

Could Blank raise 500,000 men—the strength assigned Germany in the European Army Treaty — through volunteers alone?

"No, the birthrate makes that a statistical impossibility. The main reason we must have conscription, however, is to train reserves," Blank explained.

Blank needs the volunteers for "cadres," the skeleton forces on to which successive classes of conscripts will be grafted. These will be the new German army's core of professionals. Blank intends to sign up every qualified man he can get.

"When the ink is dry on the last document of the last nation ratifying the European Army Theaty," Blank grinned, "we are going to swing open the doors of recruiting stations in every city, town and village in Germany."

And the equipment — particularly the heavy equipment — for the new German army?

"There is no difficulty there. The United States will give us most of the tanks, jet aircraft and artillery we need. The light equipment, quartermaster supplies, vehicles and signal supplies, we shall produce ourselves. German industry is in good shape and can have the stuff running out of our ears in six months to a year," Blank said confidently.

The Germans are depending on Allied forces in Germany, particularly the British and Americans, to help whip the German units into shape. Blank explained:

"Our troops will work very closely with the British and American forces, particularly at the beginning. We shall be using Allied training areas and using British and American training equipment.

"The British and Americans will train our young pilots for jet aircraft, and the Luftwaffe pilots that enlist will be given refresher training at British and American airfields in Germany.

"Within one year after the first German troops begin training, our cadres will be ready, and within two years out 12 divisions will be completely trained and combat ready."

Blank disclosed that at least four of the 12 prospective German divisions will be stationed in the British Zone of Germany, where they will share British training fields and receive British training instruction.

How will the British and Americans take to their new German allies?

"We have every reason to believe that the relationship will be extremely cordial, and that we shall become true allies," Blank said.

"There will be the usual lapses from grace—a few brawls here and there—but nothing to worry anyone."

She's in the Clouds

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON

Mitzi Moore spends much of her time in the clouds. In her tiny two-seater plane, she and her husband, Wendell, make a business of "shooting" camera murals of the earth's terrain in various parts of the country.

Mrs. Moore was very much "down to earth" when we met the other day. The pretty little blonde aerial photographer, who has chalked up 1,000 solo hours since taking up flying seven years ago, was a little wistful and misty-eyed after seeing her daughter, Courtney II, off to a Girl Scout camp.

She is literally down-to-earth as well on the days she sets aside for golf and gardening. She shoots in the low 70s, and she boasts one of the most beautiful gardens in Washington.

The Moores were married in 1934, when she was 18 and had just graduated from a Washington convent, where she took a business course but showed more aptitude for painting. They usually go on flying assignments together. One mans the controls while the other shoots the picture. Their photographs appear in newspapers and other publications. An assignment to photograph the terrain of the Susquehanna Valley will entail about five hours flying and picture-taking a day for about three months.

For these jobs Mrs. Moore wears coveralls or an Air Force "monkey suit" but as coordinator of all women's activities in the National Capital Wing of the Civil Air Patrol she appears at meetings in a snappy uniform with captain's bars.

Mitzi Moore also is governor of the middle-eastern section of The Ninety-Nines, Inc., made up of some 142 licensed women pilots with 200 or more solo hours. Amelia Earhart was the organization's first president. Mrs. Moore hopes the day is not far off when women can serve as pilots in the Air Force.

Mrs. Moore met her husband when he came to Washington with the Wake Forest (N.C.) College football team. "The football went over the line, and I tried to catch it," she laughed. "I caught him instead. We were married in six months."

Bugs Are Oil Key

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — If there are bugs on the soil there's oil down below. That's the belief of Logan Goodnight of Long Beach who has studied and found significant the relation between the presence of certain soil bug and oil deposits. His theory is backed by the development of 18 wildcat producers in Texas, Kansas and California into million dollar properties. "These bacteria," Goodknight said, "live on volatile gases from the oil and gas below. They multiply and leave 'tracks' and chemical tests verify their presence and indicate commercial production."

Jumbo and the Psychiatrist

("Officials of the Johannesburg zoo have decided to let a psychiatrist handle the case of an elephant that suddenly turned bad-tempered."—News Item)

Doctor — I suppose you know why you're here. And stop flapping your ears at me. We won't get anywhere that way, even if I start flapping mine, too.

Jumbo — This is all Greek to me. All I know is I got sick of zoo visitors.

Doctor — All your life you were a normal, well-balanced model elephant, following a proper behavior pattern. You never caused any trouble until the other day.

Jumbo — The fact I behaved well so many years in a zoo could prove I was not normal. That's the trouble with us elephants—we should put on a revolt in the first place. It's the fact we behave so well that makes us a fit study for psychiatrists.

Doctor — You may have something there.

Jumbo — How would you like to be a captive elephant all your life, doing tricks in a zoo, a circus or a vaudeville act, with people staring at you and kids forever tossing you peanuts?

Doctor — As a psychiatrist I must admit I could never work for peanuts. But let's get on. Lie on that sofa, please. It's been especially built, although I must say I was not expecting elephants, even by appointment.

Jumbo — Don't be absurd. I'm a pachyderm not a French poodle or a Siamese cat.

Doctor (making notes) — Patient is argumentative and inclined to make distinctions on technical basis.

Jumbo — Not even a circus elephant lies on couches. Even if I did it, what would it get me? Just a contract with Ringling Brothers for the 1954 season.

Doctor (still making notes) — Stubborn type—worries too much—inclined to be suspicious.

Jumbo — Wanna lie down on the floor and let me walk over you? Like to stand on my tusks and have me raise you up in the air?

-:-

Doctor — That's a curious idea.

Jumbo — I'll bet you're the type who expects every elephant to waltz and play the bass drums.

Doctor — You're maladjusted. Let's try to get at the trouble. Do you get along well with other elephants?

Jumbo — How would I know?

-:-

Doctor — Do you feel inferior in crowds? Do you trust people with paper bags? Relax and tell me all.

Jumbo — You relax and tell all. You've been getting around more than I have, doc.

Doctor —How was your home life? Were your parents unkind to you?

Jumbo — Father used to slap me around for going out with rogue elephants. Mother once struck me for not eating all my cereal.

Doctor — Now we're getting somewhere. Were you left alone at home while your parents went off to push over trees and uproot buildings?

Jumbo — I forget.

Doctor — What? You're an elephant that FORGETS!!! THIS IS REALLY SERIOUS!

Now we are to have an "auto in the slot" garage!—The latest big-city garage takes over the car without the touch of a human hand. You drive it into a "slot" and it is automatically carried up and filed away in a pigeonhole until you call for it. Then — presto — a button is touched and down it comes.

In what was described by board of election officials as an unusually heavy city primary vote, Harry L. Dowler of 196 S. Greenwood St., attorney, was chosen the Republican nominee for mayor and Henry P. Drake of 335 N. State St., a real estate man, was selected as the Democratic nominee. Dowler won by a wide margin over his only opponent, Earle C. Johnson, a member of city council, and Drake defeated A. L. Kessler, Marion roofing contractor, and Clarence W. Luse, a carpenter.

H-Bomb Talk Gets Results

Malenkov Tries Some Psychological Warfare

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just suggesting Russia has the hydrogen bomb—whether it does or not—gave Malenkov a chance to try to fry a few eggs for himself:

Maybe smoke out a little information about this country's H-bomb, which he did; strengthen his own hand at home and Russia's bargaining power abroad; and take another crack at weakening the North Atlantic Alliance.

The United States government has never said it had made an H-bomb or mastered production of it. The Atomic Eenergy Commission has spoken only of tests "contributing" to H-bomb research.

But yesterday two members of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, which gets more information in this field than any other committees in Congress, flatly said this country has the H-bomb.

Rep. Hinshaw, a California Democrat, said: "We mastered production of the hydrogen bomb and all other aspects of it a year ago, so it is not surprising that the Russians claim to have developed it now.

And Rep. Van Zandt, Pennsylvania Republican, said: "Why, we didn't know we had one (an H-bomb) ourselves until last October when we exploded a hydrogen device."

A boost in his own prestige was the least Malenkov could gain by claiming that Russia under his leadership had learned how to make an H-bomb. It was a boost he may have needed.

Internal dificulties have piled up on him in the few months since he succeeded Stalin. At times he has looked like a leader with an uncertain future:

Uprisings among the captive peoples in East Germany and Czechoslovakia; purges in the Communist party; and Malenkov's startling imprisonment of his co-partner and secret police chief, Lavrenty Beria.

But Malenkov's H-bomb announcement, besides helping him personally, fitted in handily with the carrot and stick technique of trying to break up the Atlantic Pact between this country and its West European friends.

This country's stockpile of A-bombs may run into thousands. Russia, credited with achieving an atomic explosion four years ago, may have A-bombs in the hundreds.

This would be a disadvantage for the Communists in a war where this country and Russia simply dropped A-bombs on each other.

The Russians could do a lot to equalize this by a sudden sneak attack. And this country's West European allies, being closer to Russia, could expect the first taste of Russian A-bombs.

This was a prospect bound to make U. S. allies in Western Europe anxious for peace, if they could get it, even perhaps to the point of appeasing Russia in a crisis.

That was all to the good for Russia—while the A-bomb was the biggest weapon. But Russian ability to frighten Western Europe with the threat of A-bombs would diminish if this country had the H-bomb and Russia did not.

So Malenkov couldn't lose by claiming that Russia had the H-bomb, even if it didn't. While the H-bomb remains the stick out of sight, Malenkov in his speech to the Supreme Soviet pushed the carrot under West Europe's nose.

He did it by talking peace again, suggesting that if there was peace the Atlantic Pact would collapse. He said Russia's talk of peace was not a Communist tactical maneuver but a permanent Russian policy.

And if anyone had any doubt that he wanted to strengthen Russia's bargaining position by putting it on a par in power with the United States—through his claims about the H-bomb—he said:

American statesmen are making a mistake if they consider Soviet efforts toward peace a sign of weakness or softness.

So long as Russia did not say it had the H-bomb, and the apparatus of American scientists did not pick up tell-tale evidence in the atmosphere of H-bomb explosion in Russia, there seemed to be a widespread belief Russia did not have it.

Now, even if he's faking, Malenkov has raised doubts which he may try to exploit later. From a psychological standpoint he's already made use of the H-bomb.

America spends less than $500,000 a year on research on the blinding eye diseases says the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Drivers Urged To Pay Heed to Traffic Signals

Cpl. D. M. Dewalt of the State Highway Patrol today cited the failure of motorists to heed highway traffic signs and signals as a major factor in many of the highway accidents which happened in 1952.

Cpl. Dewalt urged motorist to learn and recognize the five basic signs and their meanings. He said the motorist should also drive at a speed which permits him to follow directions after he has seen them.

Too many drivers drive at such a fast speed that they are unable to slow down, stop, or perform the direction indicated by the markers, he observed.

The five basic sign shapes and their meaning follow:

1. Eight-sided, painted yellow and black or red and white. This means STOP—never anything else.

2. Diamond, yellow and black. This indicates danger ahead, such as a school zone, narrow bridge, men working, curves, intersections or side roads. They mean slow down and stay alert.

3. Rectangular, painted white with black or colored lettering. These indicate speed limits, no passing zones, and give other regulations.

4. Round, yellow and balck. They warn of a railroad crossing 300 to 500 feet ahead. These call for slow speed and extra caution.

5. Railroad crossbuck marks the intersection of highway and railway. Cross only when the way is clear.

Cpl. Dewalt said that many traffic accidents would not happen if motorists knew and obeyed all traffic signs.

Hide in Apple Tree

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Two youths stole the police patrol boat yesterday, cruised about three hours on Lake Quinsigamond and then wrecked the craft on the lake bank.

Neighbors said that after police searched a nearby field, the two boys dropped out of an apple tree and sped away.

The anointing of the British monarchs at coronation is believed to stem from the anointing of David and other Jewish leaders as recounted in the Old Testament.

The bride and her twin sister are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Knappenberger of Waldo. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schrote of near Marion.

The skirt had a lace inset, and the bodice was of lace over satin, with a matching lace jacket. Holding the fingertip-length bridal veil was a white net cap with rhinestone insets. The bride carried a white embroidered handkerchief which belonged to her maternal grandmother, and her bridal flower was a purple orchid, on a white Bible which was a gift of the late Mrs. Ruth Klingel. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Ellen Knappenberger wore a gown of powder blue with a sleeveless jacket of lace. Her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations.

Retired Texas Ranger, Enemy of Bandits, Dies

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Marvin E. Bailey, retired Texas Ranger who is said to have once captured four Mexican generals, was buried today.

"He was a good shot with his peacemaker," another former Ranger, Frank Hamer of Austin, said of Bailey, who died here Saturday night.

Bailey was captain of a Ranger company which in 1908 patrolled the rugged Big Bend country along the Rio Grande.

Hamer said Bailey once captured four Mexican generals who "were out to recruit 'friends of the revolution' for Pancho Villa."

"Bailey was a cool man."

Does Your Toast Shrink?

Duncan Hines

Good old-fashioned bread with the old-time ingredients, says food connoisseur Duncan Hines, will not shrink in the toaster.

More than 50 per cent of bread eaten in the U.S. today is eaten in toast form. The experts say that a firm, solid loaf of bread will not shrink after it has been toasted.

Duncan Hines Home Style Enriched Bread, has a close grain which gives it substance. To toast Duncan Hines Bread, turn the toaster up a little higher, because it toasts slower than other bread.

It makes toast that is golden brown, crisp and with a nut-like flavor.

Eskimos Now Dig Our Refrigerators

CHICAGO (INS)—It's hardly a trick these days to sell a refrigerator to an Eskimo.

In fact, refrigerators and home freezers are much in demand in Alaska and other northern climes, according to Admiral Corporation, manufacturer of home appliances. Nearly all food imported from the United States is in frozen form and the local supply of moose and other big game available for shooting must be stored safely.

But in places like Fairbanks, Alaska, where temperatures dip to 60 degrees below zero, a freezer is needed to "warm" the food to proper temperature — zero to 20 below. Meat kept at 60 below might take several days to thaw. Similarly the refrigerator keeps many foods like milk and butter just above freezing.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

For a carefree time on your vacation, follow these few hints:

1. Stop delivery of milk and newspapers.

Earl J. Andrews

2. Shut off water, electricity and gas supplies.

3. Lock all windows and doors, including garage.

4. Leave your house looking normal so as not to advertise it is unoccupied . . . and

5. Most important—let us check your insurance to be sure there's adequate protection against all likely losses.

What losses do we have in mind?

First, fire and the related hazards which are usually included in a fire policy. Make certain your home and valuable contents are covered.

Then, of course, Burglary. While you try to reduce the chance of this loss by the hints above, it is well to have protection. Burglars don't want trouble and generally "visit" homes while the residents are away.

A policy may be written to protect the personal property you take with you as well as that left at home.

Finally, automobile. A review of your policy before you leave may save you from costly judgments or unnecessary trouble on your trip.

Parliamentary Election Under Way in Canada

Liberals Under Prime Minister St. Laurent Seen Retaining Power

TORONTO (AP)—Voters across Canada marked ballots today in an election widely expected to give Louis St. Laurent's Liberal party four to five more years of power.

Even the most vocal supporters of the opposition Progressive Conservative (Tory) party were dubious of ousting St. Laurent as prime minister. The opposition remembered the drubbing popular "Uncle Louis" handed them last time around.

In 1949's elections he spearheaded the greatest political victory in Canadian history. His party won 72 per cent of the seats in the House of Commons.

Here and there, the Liberals had lost favor in the last four years, but seemingly not on a scale to warrant much optimism for George Drew. As Conservative leader, Drew would succeed St. Laurent in a Tory victory.

The Liberals came to power under W. L. Mackenzie King's leadership in 1935, riding much the same wave of sentiment that elected Franklin D. Roosevelt three years earlier. Victory today will promise the Liberals at least 22 years total tenure, beating the Democrats' 20-year stay in the White House. The Canadian term is nominally five years, but a government can call an election before its time expires. The Liberals called this one well ahead of their 1954 deadline.

The only offices at stake today were 263 Commons seats, representing as many districts. (The Liberals won two other seats without opposition.) The party winning a majority forms the government, naming the Prime Minister. He in turn appoints a cabinet.

St. Laurent's and Drew's names appeared on the ballot only in their own districts.

The Liberals held 181 seats and the Conservatives 48 when the last Parliament adourned. Conservatives held hopes mainly of narrowing that margin. Minor parties also stood a good chance of whittling away a few additional seats from the Liberals.

The election ended a dull campaign. Drew based the Conservatives' bid largely on charges the St. Laurent government had assumed dictatorial powers and been extravagant. He promised a tax cut of half a billion dollars, a ninth of the national budget, and said some of this could be offset by more efficient defense spending.

"There never was a Canadian government so ready to cling to power by hook or crook as the present one," he said.

St. Laurent pointed to tax reductions already ordered and said the Liberal government had been able to cut the public debt 2 billions in eight years. He denied charges of waste.

Michigan Man Arrested On Charge of Auto Theft

A Michigan man arrested by Marion police Saturday night was turned over to Columbus police Sunday on a charge of car theft.

James R. Smith, 30, of Pontiac, Mich., was arrested after two unidentified hitch-hikers called police and reported their suspicions of Smith, with whom they had ridden to Marion.

Police stopped Smith on N. Main St. and held him for investigation. A check with the Columbus police department disclosed the car he was driving was stolen in Columbus. He was returned to Columbus on the car theft charge shortly afternoon Sunday.

delivering the ghastly ROK litter cases before the eyes of India's Foreign Minister R. K. Nehru.

Nehru, a member of the Neutral Nations Advisory Commission which will oversee prisoners who refuse repatriation, reached Panmunjom in time to witness the third hourly delivery of prisoners. This was the exchange group that was switched by the Reds.

Tuesday's group, the Reds announced, all will be in good health. It will be made up of 100 Americans, 25 British, 25 Turks and 250 South Koreans.

The total will raise the number of U. N. soldiers returned in seven days to 2,774, including 648 of 3,313 Americans the Reds said they held. The Communists have said they will return 12,763 prisoners all told.

There were fewer incidents in the switch Monday. The only trouble came from a handful of North Korean prisoners who jumped off their northbound trucks here and appeared ready to start a fight.

They claimed some South Koreans had thrown stones at their truck. Military police and other Red prisoners restrained them with angry shouts. There was no further trouble.

Most Americans Ignored Red Line, 2 Ohio POW's Say

FREEDOM VILLAGE (AP) — Two repatriated prisoners of war from Ohio said today most American prisoners did not fall for Communist propaganda.

Pvt. Russell L. Freeman of Dayton said:

"They made us go to lectures and they gave us stuff to study but most of us just weren't having any."

Cpl. Willie F. Mansfield of Hamilton said he did not believe Negro soldiers from his prison camp had stayed with the Reds out of choice.

Rumors at the camp, he said, were that three Negro prisoners had decided not to come back.

"But I heard that one of those told one of the other men to tell the Americans the Chinese were forcing him to stay," Mansfield said.

Man Injured in Fall From Moving Truck

James Golden of 226 Patterson St. was sent to Marion City Hospital early Sunday morning with injuries suffered when he accidentally fell from the cab of a moving truck.

He told police he fell from a truck driven by Morris Edwards of 294 Bellevue Ave. while the truck was turning from Barks Rd. onto Cheney Ave.

He was released from the hospital after treatment for his injuries.

9,000 VISIT TAFT GRAVE

CINCINNATI (AP) — Indian Hill Rangers estimated today approximately 9,000 persons have visited the grave of U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft since his burial in the Indian Hill Church Cemetery since last Tuesday.

Progressives

his own mother and father if they interfered with him being a Communist and would never even spit on an American dollar again."

Three other Americans who returned Monday said the Reds have returned "No. 1 progressives" from Camp 5.

The three were among 125 Americans who streamed into Freedom Village with smiles on their faces but grim words on their lips. This was the biggest group of Americans sent back on one day.

They said the "No. 1 progressives" from their camp were handed over at Panumnjom in the first few days of Operation Big Switch.

The prisoners labeled men who swallowed the Red line "progressives" and said many were informers in the POW camps.

Some have elected to stay behind, prisoners have said, either converted to the Communist philosophy or fearful of what their fellow inmates might do once the Red protection was gone.

The three liberated men, all from Iowa, said all the "progressives" have been returned from Camp 5 near the Yalu River at Pyoktong.

"The rest of the boys are okay," said Cpl. Dale L. Reeder of Waukon. "They (the 'progressives') were in the first groups liberated."

His words were supported by Sgt. Gordon M. Schmitz of Le Mars and Sgt. Kenneth Darrow of Charles City.

Most of the Americans who returned in the sixth day of Operation Big Switch climbed down from their ambulances light-hearted and healthy, but inside the warehouse processing center they told ugly stories about their long months in captivity.

They told of hunger and ceaseless indoctrination, death and constant racial propaganda, and their disgust for the "progressives."

All the returned prisoners from Pyoktong agreed there were some "progressives" there but estimates of numbers varied widely.

H-Bomb

one, occurred last week, possibly Friday, because (A) Malenkov's speech was described in dispatches as a "surprise," and (B) the statements by Hinshaw and Van Zandt seemed to imply this country had received no recent evidence of a hydrogen blast in Russia.

Lapp said that if Russia actually has developed an H-bomb, it would not necessarily mean the Soviets "copied an American version through the aid of espionage." He said the field of thermonuclear research "is so new and fruitful that Russia may have uncorked a completely new development which we may have overlooked.

Basing his estimates on the speed of stratospheric winds, Lapp said that steady westerly winds might blow radioactive particles out of Russia at a speed of 500 miles or more a day.

Dulles

that most of them in "pretty bad physical condition."

The condition of those exchanged later, he added, has been somewhat better.

The secretary then said this government is concerned that some prisoners of war might be withheld and not exchanged by the Chinese Communists and the North Koreans.

That matter, Dulles said, is "very much on our minds." He said those in charge administering the armistice, including Gen. Maxwell Taylor, commander of the 8th Army in Korea, are going to do "all that is humanly possible to get back all American boys."

A bit later in the news conference, Dulles was asked to elaborate on what precautionary steps are being taken in an effort to preesnt the Reds from withholding prisoners.

The secretary replied prisoners who have been returned are being checked carefuly to find out if they can furnish the names of any others who may be withheld.

Then Dulles said that "If they (the prisoners) don't get back we would presumably adopt reciproal measures."

Asked whether that meant this country in turn would withhold some Communist prisoners, the the secretary said that would "seem to be a normal procedure."

Ten-Year-Old Accident Victim Is 'Still Critical'

The condition of James "Teddy" Smith, 10, victim of an auto-bike crash Thursday, was reported as 'still critical' at White Cross Hospital in Columbus, today. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, of near Marion, was injured in a collision when he rode into the path of a west-bound car on Route 30-S.

The car was driven by Harry C. Darrah, 22, of Louisville, O. The boy was taken to Marion City Hospital and then removed to White Cross. Injuries included a head injury, fractured left clavical and chest injury. A blood clot was removed from the boy's brain over the week end.

The eyes of Prince Charles and Princess Anne fairly dance with excitement as the train taking them to a summer vacation at Balmoral Castle slowly approaches Aberdeen station, Scotland. The little Prince assumes the role of big brother as he whispers in Princess Anne's ear interesting and exciting details about the depot.

4 Hurt Near Cardington

Four persons were taken from a two-car collision on Route 42, three and four-tenths miles south of Cardington, to Morrow County Hospital at Mt. Gilead, Saturday about 4:50 a.m.

Injured were: August Clayborne, 44, of Cincinnati, driver of one car, bruised left arm; passengers, Yancy Hollingsworth, 31, head injury and Coran Clayborne, both of Cincinnati, laceration of the left arm and bruised chest and the driver of the other car, Millard Maddox, 40, of Cleveland, fractured left arm. They were taken to the hospital in a Curl ambulance from Cardington.

The southbound car went off the road, tore down six posts and 100 feet of farm fence, struck a tree and overturned in a field. The vehicle was demolished.

Barkstall suffered an injured neck, right ankle and abrasion to the lower lip. A passenger, William Truss, 28, also of Cleveland, had abrasions of the face, neck and left knee. Both were taken to Morrow County Hospital at Mt. Gilead in a Craven ambulance.

At 7:25 p.m. Saturday on Route 23, near the Route 4 and 23 intersection, north of Marion, cars driven by James Terry, 45, of Charleston, W. Va., and Albert Hoch, 57, of 333 Homer St., were involved in a collision. Patrolmen said Terry attempted to avoid colliding with another car which was pulling out onto the highway, and applied the brakes, causing his car to slide into the Hoch auto, which was parked on the berm. There was moderate damage to Hoch's auto and extensive to the front end of the Terry car. Terry was arrested on a charge of unsafe operation and posted bond for an Aug. 15 appearance in Municipal Court.

Car Overturns in Ditch

Marjorie Smith, 17, of Tiro, escaped uninjured when she lost control of her car on State Route 598, two and three-tenths miles north of Route 30-N, at 12:30 a.m. Saturday. The car crashed into a mailbox owned by William Beach of Crestline and swerved into a ditch on the right side of the road, where it overturned. Extensive damage to the windshield, top, left side and right front door was reported. A wrecker from Crestline was called.

A farm truck driven by Neil L. Baird, 25, of near Bucyrus, and a car driven by Roger Applegate, 34, of near Ashland, collided on U. S. 30-N, three-tenths of a mile east of Bucyrus, at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Patrolmen said the Baird truck was attempting to turn left into a driveway when the Applegate car started to pass. Light damage to the front fender and bumper of the truck and extensive damage to the right front fender and right side of the car was reported.

Car Hits Pole, Fence

At 4 a.m. Sunday, on U. S. 30-S, one and three-tenths miles east of Marion, a car owned by Paul Franklin of Wooster went off the road on the right side, broke off a General Telephone Co. pole and tore down 100 feet of farm fence. Patrolmen said investigation of the accident is not complete. There was no driver at the accident scene when patrolmen arrived. The car's owner was traced through the license number.

Kenneth Paul Riley, 66, of 1078 Wilson Ave., told the Marion County sheriff's office that the headlights of an unidentified vehicle blinded him, causing him to lose control of his automobile and strike several mail boxes Saturday night.

The accident happened at 9:50 p.m., on E. Fairgrounds St., near the former county dog pound. Riley was not injured, but extensive damage resulted to his automobile.

Four minor accidents were investigated over the week end by Marion police.

The rear of a car driven by Nora P. Berry of 523 Thompson St. was damaged when struck by a car driven by Daniel P. Vlachos, 16, of 263 W. Columbia St. on W. Center St. at 10:20 p.m Saturday His car was not damaged.

The front end of a car driven by Donald Anspaugh, 19, of 681 Sugar St was damaged when it struck the rear of a car driven by Midred K. Akins of Dearborn, Mich. on S. Main St. at 4:48 p.m. Saturday Her car was not damaged

AP Photographer Is Reunited With Wife After 3 Years

TOKYO (AP) — Associated Press Photographer Frank Noel and his wife Evelyn were reunited here today after a 3-year and 1-month separation. Noel spent 32 of those weary months in a Red prison stockade . . . 42 straight days in solitary confinement facing blank walls.

The longing and waiting ended as the 48-year-old cameraman known as "pappy" to his friends, strode briskly from an air evacuation plane after being flown here from Korea, where he was released yesterday.

Tears welled in the eyes of Mrs. Noel but her face was bathed in a radiant smile. Pappy embraced her.

Then Noel, with a wide grin, spread across his tanned face, grasped his wife firmly by the arm and said:

"Come on, toots, let's go."

Mrs. Noel flew here from the United States to greet her husband.

Newsreel and still cameramen, many of them old friends of Noel, recorded the meeting—the first time Noel has seen his wife since he left the United States to cover the Korean War on July 4, 1950.

The Pulitzer Prize winner was taken prisoner by the Chinese while covering the Marine retreat from the Changjin Reservoir in Northeast Korea in December 1950.

He was thinner but in high spirits.

The ILA was rocked by revelations dug up by congressional investigating committees and the New York State Crime Commission that the New York and New Jersey docks situation was ruled by racketeers, many of them in ILA ranks.

After todays hearing with ILA officials, the 15-member AFL council will draft recommendations for the AFL's St. Louis convention next month. The council's advice to conventions is usually followed.

Commissioners Not Against Installing Elevator, They Say

Marion County commissioners are not opposed to the installation of an elevator in the Courthouse if funds were available, Chairman Ray Reindenbaugh stated today.

Commissioners made this statement this morning to clarify their stand after it was learned Saturday they had appealed the Common Pleas Court ruling ordering them to install an elevator in the Courthouse.

County Prosecutor Ralph Carhart, on their behalf, filed the appeal with the Third District Court of Appeals asking the higher court to review evidence leading to the order.

Three levies requested by commissioners have been approved by the board of elections for placement on the November ballots. These levies, each asking one-half mill, are for raising funds for (1) construction, acquisition, and installation of an elevator in the Courthouse, (2) construction, reconstruction, enlargement and extension of County buildings, especially a hospital unit for the Marion County Home, and (3) operating funds for the county.

Reidenbaugh said commissioners felt that if funds in excess of those needed to operate the county were available, other projects such as improvements at the Marion County Home should take priority over the installation of an elevator, in their opinion.

only one in the far-flung field able to crack that time. The races were run straight into a 20-mile wind, and through intermittent showers.

Ohio's entries were out of the running after two rounds yesterday.

Marion, Other Ohio Entrants, Drop Out Early

Phillip Blue of LaRue, local Derby champion and Marion's representative to the national finals in Akron Sunday, was eliminated in first round competition along with five other Ohioans. No one from the state got past the second round.

Eliminated in the first round with Blue were Daniel Norman of Cincinnati; David F. Durham, Cleveland; Charles E. Lappert, Ravenna-Kent; Thomas E. Gaultier Jr., Salem, and Earl F. Arnholt of Ashland.

Eliminated in the second round were William Sampson, Akron; Peter H. Beckwith, Columbus; Jere Courtney, Lima; Ronald L. Loeffler, Sandusky and Otho Wise Jr. of Martins Ferry.

Blue raced in the 11th heat, coming in third behind Richard J. Lackey of Ellwood City, Pa., and Charles Anderson of Wisconsin Rapids, Wis. Lackey also won in the second round but was beaten in the third by Dale King of Los Angeles, 15-year-old second place winner. Lackey's time in the 11th heat was 29.35 seconds.

A number of boys who raced in the Marion Derby attended the national finals, along with parents and some Lions Club members. The Lions Club, which sponsored the Marion race, supplied tickets to all boys who wanted to see the Akron windup. A number made the trip in a bus supplied by the Marion Engineer Depot.

ly, 19, of Greenlawn, O., was not injured.

The Jovas boy, who suffered a broken back, is in "fair" condition today at the hospital. The other youths were taken to Crawford County jail to be held until a probation officer from East Chicago, Ind., calls for them.

State highway patrolmen from Marion who investigated the crash said the registration of the car was checked and it was found that the vehicle belonged to an East Chicago, Ind., man. The boys then admitted stealing the car in East Chicago Friday night.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

SALZBURG, AUSTRIA

This is the saga of a spy!

It has taken me 10 years to catch up with him. But I have. At least I know where he is and what he's doing. He was an American. Now he is working for atomic spies and for the "American Section" of the Soviet propaganda apparatus in Czechoslovakia.

RIESEL

Sound melodramatic? Well, here are the facts:

The spy's name is George Shaw Wheeler. I first spotted him in the old days working undercover with Soviet agents on the old National Labor Relations Board in Washington.

One of those agents is still active today. Still free in the United States. Still so powerful in one American union that he can order the slashing of the most vital defense production, even the production of atomic material in Canada and the United States right now.

WHEELER went from the Labor Board to the Department of Labor. Then to the State Department. Inside government circles some of us fought him every inch and minute of his espionage career. But to show you how successful we were, George Shaw Wheeler wound up as assistant to the general counsel of Gen. Clay, when the general was head of the American Military Government in Germany.

This was in 1946, when our military government was helping Germany democratize itself. Again we screamed.

Again some mysterious power somewhere in Washington protected George Shaw Wheeler and left Gen. Clay and many of us helpless. Wheeler was "cleared".

JUST ABOUT that time the American military authorities permitted the SED, the Communist Workers party, to spring into existence and run mass meetings in Germany.

Just about that time some 30 Communist mayors were appointed in our zone.

Just at that moment in history, our AMG treated the Communist party in Germany as a democratic political organization.

A Bavarian government was set up — and the vital ministery of denazification went to a Communist by the name of August Schmidt.

Result of all this was that the Communists were able to place their poeple in key industrial spots where they are powerful to this day in Bavaria. Not politically influential. But powerful in cells in strategic plants in ALL heavy industries.

They especially infiltrated the pivotal metal and communications fields. They went into many police departments. They are still there, although quiet except in those areas where they have sufficient power to show their hand.

Go to Augsburg, Bavaria. The huge MAN installations there produces heavy machinery, trucks and vast industrial equipment.

IT SHOULD be noted here that in the American scheme of things, German industry counts as a terrific war production potential. But it will take one year to tool the German Federal Republic's iron, steel, machine and automotive plants for defense production to help equip NATO and European Defense Community forces.

Yet the ommies, at least in Bavaria, are in spots where they can stall production and lead slowdowns to stretch that year into two.

In 1946 and 1947, a husky anti-Communist laborite by name of Heinz Gohler, and SPD (second largest party) leader, went to our occupying forces in Germany and told them of this infiltration.

They gave him some pamphlets —the old brushoff. So he and his colleagues fought alone. They won in many areas.

George Shaw Wheeler and his network were responsible for this infiltration into Western German plants, cities and police forces. There was little we could do but watch him closely.

-:-

THEN ONE day, he slipped across the Czech border. He renounced his American citizenship. And everybody lost sight of this sovieteer. Until a few days ago, that is. Then I learned that he was in the Soviet-Czech "American Section."

He had helped run a peace conference in Budapest — and had splashed Paul Robeson's picture in store windows as a symbol of American support.

He did a radio hatchet job on the United States during the atomic spy execution episode. He has been broadcasting to West Germans — telling them they are Wall Street pawns.

I now have records of the time, date, radio stations and transcriptions of Comrade Wheeler's broadcasts and activities.

But now it's too late — at least in l'affaire Wheeler.

Man's Friend

By Inez Robb

"If I were ten years younger, I'd buy myself a dog," the head of Clan Robb said as he put down the evening newspaper. "Say a boxer with three pups."

INEZ ROBB

"That isn't one dog, that's four," I said. "And, besides, you're the one who's always said that dogs shouldn't be forced to lead a city life."

"I am a man who can learn by example," Mr. R. began, "and when I went out to buy this paper just now I saw a splendid example of how to win friends and influence women.

"As I walked up Sixth Avenue toward the newsstand, a young fellow coming toward me was creating a kind of minor traffic jam."

-:-

"HE WAS giving away ten dollar bills?" I guessed.

"He wasn't giving away anything but his name, address and telephone number to swooning females," said the master of the house, "and collecting the same from them in his little black book. And in the neatest, most respectable manner in the world.

"He had thought up a dodge you can't beat. He was out walking a big, maternal boxer and three of the friskiest pups you ever saw, and you can't arrest a guy for that. Every woman in the street was 'oh-h-h-h-ing' and 'ah-h-h-h-ing' over those dogs.

"Just as the lad got abreast of me, two of the prettiest girls I ever saw threw themselves at his feet to pet the dogs. It was a lesson in propriety for Emily Post. The young man stopped so the girls could admire his dogs but he didn't try to speak to them. And the girls ignored him. They just talked to the pups, not to him."

"THEIR MOTHERS should have warned them about talking to strange dogs," I said.

"Then one of the young ladies said to the other that she had always wanted a dog more than anything," Mr. R. continued, scorning the interruption. "That was the man's cue to say 'Excuse me, Miss, but just by coincidence, I am looking for a good home for these puppies. Would you be interested in having one when it is house-broken?"

"Of course, the girl had to reply. She said she would be the happiest girl in the world to have a boxer pup, but she would have to consult with her mother first. So the young man, still polite and aloof, said if he only had her name, he would be glad to call and find out in another 24 hours if she really wanted the pup.

"Of course, they had to exchange names, addresses and phone numbers.

"ABOUT THAT time, I went across the street to get a package of cigarets at Molly's Delicatessen. A minute later who comes in to buy dog food but the young man with his kennel in tow. And you know that pretty girl who lives on the fifth floor of this apartment house?

"Well, she was in Molly's too, and she began having hysterics over the pups. In two minutes, they were exchanging names, addresses and phone numbers, so he could call in 24 hours to find out if her father will let her have a pup. Can you beat it?"

"No," I said. "It's a better racket than all the lonely hearts clubs ever invented."

"That's amateur stuff" scoffed the head of Clan Robb. "This lad is destined to go places, all of them interesting. Why, if I were ten years younger . . ."

"I'd buy a leash!" I said firmly.

High Price for Mess of Pottage

Open Letter to GI's Who Turned Red

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to any of the few American prisoners in Korea who chose to remain behind the Bamboo Curtain:

Dear ex-gi Joe:

So you don't want to come home, kid? You've picked the Red over the Red, White and Blue.

Why? Is it because your former buddies in the prison camps knew you had turned informer and ratted on them to get better treatment? And you were afraid to come back because you'd have to face the day of reckoning?

In every war there is a handful like you. Thousands of your fellow American prisoners died rather than yield their beliefs. Other thousands clung stubbornly to their faith through months or even years of sickness and bare-boned hunger.

The dead lie in unmarked graves but live in honored memory. The living will return to a hero's welcoming.

And you, the handful who tried to sell them out for an extra mouthful of wheat, who peddled your birthright for less than a mess of pottage, who will remember you? Only the families you have dishonored. And it were better if even they never know your guilt.

Maybe you weren't actually the stool pigeon the other soldiers thought you. Maybe you became what they jeeringly called a "progressive, a Red sympathizer' because your captors actually sold you communism on principle.

Either way, kid, you've made one of the world's worst buys. By refusing to be repatriated you became a deserter, and that is the way your Army will list you, even if it never can try you as a traitor.

You have traded an old and tried freedom for a new will-o'-the-wisp "freedom," the false light of the world. You have abandoned the Statue of Liberty and the Stars and Stripes for the blood-red symbol of the Hammer and Sickle.

Your fellow prisoners say that, when they started the long, joyous journey home, you were having a party among yourselves. What could you be celebrating? And when they had departed, and you had filled your belly with meat and drunk all the liquor you wanted, what did you think?

Did you get a little sick inside as you looked around the empty camp? Did you realize that now you will never have a home again in your life, and you might as well drop the word from your vocabulary?

Now there is nothing for you to come back to. And what is there for you to look forward to?

The Red guards must look at you with open contempt now. For they need you no longer. There is no one left for you to betray.

They can never be your friends. And you cannot be friends with one another. For whenever you look into each other's eyes, each will see mirrored there the image of one who betrayed either his buddis or his principles, or both.

The top Communists will never trust you. The only use they can now find for you is to trot you from place to place to parrot their propaganda. And when your value as a window-dressing or showpiece for communism dwindles, what will be your reward? Labor in a slave camp? A casual bullet in the back, and a ditch grave?

Take a long, long look at the Hammer and Sickle. You will come to hear them in the days or years, few or many, of doubt and terror that are your only future. Your dead fellow prisoners have found their peace. Those who survived are returning to peace and their old way of life.

But you are now one of the living dead, hated by those you used to know, despised by those you now move among as an alien, forever a stranger in a strange land.

Not much of a payoff, is it kid?

Sincerely,
Hal Boyle

North Carolina Man To Take Bride at 111

NEW BERN, N. C. (AP) — When Elliot Ogman applied for a marriage license, Register of Deeds Jane Holland smiled.

"Don't laugh at me, lady, the old Negro said. "When I went to one doctor for my blood test and he laughed at me, I went to another one.

Ogman said he was 111 and was grown when the Civil War broke out. His bride, Clyde Mae Godard of Williamston, gave her age as 22.

"Wait until my baby boy hears about this, said Ogman. "He's 79.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both— Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. ®Trade Mark

AFL Roofers Strike In 16 Ohio Counties

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Most major construction work involving roofing was halted in a 16-county area today by an AFL roofers strike.

The 16 counties affected embrace an area roughly bounded by Marion, Union, Perry and Ross counties. The atomic energy plant site in Pike County is not affected.

Victor Ringer, chairman of the Contractors Roofers Assn., said the roofers' contract expired today and that the issue is a 30-cent hourly wage increase demand.

Some 150 roofers in the 16 counties are reported affected by the strike. They are employed by 14 contractors.

BIG-HEARTED BANDIT

Youth Boosted For Better Jobs

CHICAGO (INS)—A 26-year-old Chicago industrialist urges business to place young men in positions of trust. He points out that their inexperience will be vigorous enthusiasm and initiative.

William J. Templeman, who six years ago took over the reins of his late father's business, the 51-year-old Premier Electric Construction Co. of Chicago, admitted that he was filled with fear when he realized the size of the job thrust upon him.

But Templeman, giving up his electrical engineering studies at Northwestern University to enter the business world, has seen his firm's income soar from $220,000 a year to nearly $500,000.

The company has expanded under Templeman's leadership, taking jobs throughout Illinois and nearby states.

Templeman recalled the problems which he solved in the early days of his industrial career.

He pointed out that the business had been operated by his father and a former partner as a profession. Templeman realized this procedure had to be abandoned because he did not have the background to oversee each portion of the firm's operation.

He found that there was a core of old timers in the organization who knew all the ropes. He relied on these men, who responded splendidly when given increased responsibility.

Templeman, however, said some of the older men, especially those who recently joined the company, resented him because of his lack of experience and youth. He won these men over by working with them instead of acting as their boss.

Templeman said customers actually favored him over competitors, taking the attitude that they wanted to give "that new young kid a break."

He pointed out that he acknowledged their faith in him by doing an extra good job and giving them just a little more than was agreed upon in contracts.

Woman Walks 2,000 Miles, Loses 110 Pounds

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Helen Fedorowicz, 42, lost 110 pounds in four months, but her reducing method probably won't become popular.

It was her husband's idea anyway. Mrs. Fedorowicz is only 5 feet tall, but she weighed 265 pounds that day in April when her spouse, John, 59, a roofer, said to her: "Let's take a walk."

They did. They started at Fresno and trudged 350 miles to the Mexican border. Then they turned eastward, over mountains and desert, camping at night and braving all kinds of weather.

Two thousand miles later Mrs. Fedorowicz weighed a mere 155. She plans to stay home and soak her feet awhile.

U.S. Business Said Booming

Record Established In April, May, June

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's output of goods and services set a record in the April-May-June quarter, but inventories went up too.

The Commerce Department, reporting this yesterday, said consumers generally put increased spending power into purchases.

Yet, it said, the first quarter's $2,900,000,000 annual rate of inventories — unsold stock on businessmen's shelf—climbed to $8,800,000,000 in the second quarter of the calendar year.

The report, touching on the whole economy, said the increased inventory centered in the manufacturing industry, particularly durable goods.

It said the gross national product, which is the total market value of all goods and services, hit a record annual rate of about 372½ billion dollars in the second quarter. That is 10½ billions above the previous three months.

Personal income, at an annual rate of 284½ billions, was three billions higher than the previous quarter's rate and included a drop in farm income.

Consumer spending for the quarter was at the annual rate of 31 billions for durable goods, notably automobiles, and was half a billion higher than in the January-February-March quarter.

Doctors said he improved slightly, then lapsed into a coma a few days later and died.

Ailing Ohioans' Spirits Raised At Good News

By The Associated Press

For sick and worried relatives throughout Ohio last night's repatriated prisoner of war list was the best medicine in the world.

Take Asa Pettit of Dayton, for example. He's been bed-ridden with an injured spine for years. But he sat up and let out a shout when he learned his son, Cpl. Hershel Pettit, 24, was free once again.

William Cydrus of Springfield, whose son Ronald, was among the repatriates, felt the same way.

"I've been too sick to work for 16 months. But that's the best news a man under the doctor's care could hear."

In Columbus, relatives of Sgt. Benjamin Conley rushed word of his release to St. Francis Hospital where his aunt, Mrs. Rosie Gates, is ill "with worry and gall bladder." Mrs. Gates reared Conley.

"This may make her better," said Conley's cousin, Mrs. Gladys Gates.

Mrs. Lillie Brewton of Toledo, when she heard her son, Pfc. Leonard Brewton, had been set free, told a newsman:

"Oh! I've waited for this moment for so long. I believe God heard my prayers."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Shearer of Haverhill near Ironton first heard of the repatriation of their son, Cpl. Roy D. Shearer, when a reporter went to their home after midnight.

"I'm so happy I could shout," the father said. "There are going to be so many mothers and fathers disappointed that I feel all the more fortunate. I've been expecting this to happen, but now that it has, I just don't know what to say."

Their son enlisted in 1948, went to Korea in 1950 and was captured shortly thereafter. The last word from him was a letter in June.

Other Ohio soldiers among last night's repatriates are Cpl. Miles E. Lampkin Jr., of Akron; Pvt. Vincent G. Simonetti of Cleveland, and Cpl. Herbert P. Aikin, of Port Jefferson.

Sesqui Program Planned By Benefit Association

Plans for an October sesquicentennial program were discussed when members of the Marion Review 231, Woman's Benefit Association, met Wednesday for a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Anna Miller on Windsor St.

Presiding during the business meeting was the president, Mrs. Blance Ward, and the auditing committee presented its monthly report. Death of a former Marion member, Mrs. Laura Midgely, was reported.

Next meeting of the group will be Sept. 2 at the home of Mrs. Helen Stayner of Carhart St.

Rent Office To Stay Closed at Portsmouth

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense mobilization officials said today the rent stabilization office at Portsmouth, Ohio, probably will not be reopened.

The Portsmouth office announced Saturday it was closing temporarily and that the appointment of Willard E. Ellsesser as area rent control director had been cancelled.

The Portsmouth office has been covering Scioto, Pike, Jackson and Ross counties in the Portsmouth-Chillicothe critical defense area.

The defense rental areas division of the Office of Defense Mobilization said rent stabilization went out July 1 except in critical areas and there will be no field offices even for critical areas due to lack of funds.

Firemen Take Woman From Tower at Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A young woman who said she failed to find happiness in three years of married life was pulled from a police radio tower here yesterday afternoon after threatening to jump.

Mrs. Marie Theodore, 22, of Chicago, told a fireman "I don't want to live any more. My husband doesn't love me any more. Leave me alone."

The woman had climbed halfway up a 103-foot tower before she was noticed. Firemen failed in their first rescue attempt but got the woman down on the second try.

Police learned Mrs. Theodore came to Dayton from Chicago several days ago, looking for her husband, Arthur Theodore. The husband is staying with his parents in Dayton.

Love in Two Languages

Summer on the big dramatic shows, in case you hadn't noticed, is the time for romance. In the wintertime, the lovers kill each other. "Why are you looking at me like that?" says the girl, wide-eyed. Minutes later, he throttles her because he is just a crazy mixed-up kid and his mother had rejected him.

J. CROSBY

But in the summertime the neuroses go underground for the time being. (And a healthy thing, too.) Never have I seen so many happy untraumatic lovers. Usually I've made a lifelong study of this thing—the lovers on a spree head straight for an amusement park—Coney Island, generally—and there they gaze into one another's eyes and ride the roller coaster and throw brass rings at canes. "It's as if I'm seeing the city for the first time," says the girl, just after feeding the ducks at Central Park.

-:-

BUT ALL THAT WAS last year. This year, the lovers have scattered all over Europe and the romances are getting terribly bilingual. This year—the writers are getting awfully snobbish — the lovers go strolling down the Campus Elysee or through the Colosseum in the moonlight or go floating down the canals in Venice. Coney Island doesn't get any play at all any more. Not swank enough.

I must have seen a dozen international romances this year, the last of which was on "Studio One" last Monday, a play called "The Roman Kid."

There are two patterns for this kind of summertime drama. One kind proves that American men are infinitely superior to European men. The other one: European men are infinitely superior to American men. This one was genre "A" and I was especially intrigued by it because the man in the case was a boxing writer.

WELL, THIS BOXING writer is in Rome, see, drifting through a museum and he meets this Italian girl and right away sweeps her off her feet with his gay American ways. That is the normal plot line, all right, but this one is even more improbable than the others.

What, I asked myself immediately, was a boxing writer doing in a museum? Your first thought, of course, is that some irate IBC official chased him in there, intending to kill him. Or maybe the boxing writer thought it was a saloon.

But no. This boxing writer—we are expected to believe — went into the museum, knowing in advance that it was a museum, that he'd be confronted by culture. Being in the line of work I'm in, I have come to accept Captain Video's adventures as perfectly reasonable but this was straining plausibility to its outer limits. Anyhow, I settled back to wait that inevitable line and presently it inevitable line and presently it came:

"How do you say it in your language?" asked the girl.

NOW HOW THE HELL would he know, lady? He's a boxing writer. They don't even understand English much less talk it. This boxing writer was talking his native tongue: "Maybe it was a dump," he exclaimed, "a tank job. The bum took a dive." This so charmed the lady that she translated the Carthusian fragment from Latin into Engish for him, a much easier task than translating boxing writing into English.

Came the big scene. It seems the girl's father, the head of the museum, had unearthed a statute of a wounded boxer which he claimed was a couple thousand years old. A trio of experts said the statue was a fraud. The old gentleman's reputation was in shreds until the boxing writer charged in and made monkeys of the archeologists. Proved the statue was genuine by the shape of the cuts on the boxer's chin. He even figured out what fight it was—a little nible Greek against a big ox of a Roman, same fight that fragment. Wow! The play was writ was written up in the Carthusian ten by Paul Gallico who used to be a boxing writer before he went straight.

APART FROM THIS inherent malarkey, this "Studio One" offered some fine production, simple but excellent direction and very good performances by Patricia Wheel and Joe Maross, both of whom surmounted some fairly incredible dialogue.

Come to think of it, the summer series of "Studio One," at least the one's I've seen, have set a pretty high average.

And romantic love is a refreshing change. Soon enough, fall will be here and the lovers will be blowing each other's heads off again.

Crawford Fair Draws 40,000

Five-Day Festivities End With Auto Show

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Crawford County's five-day fair ended here Saturday night with total attendance unofficially estimated at more than 40,000.

Fair board officials said today they were "well pleased" with the attendance figures and estimated gate admisions at about 22,000. An additional 20,000 attended the fair, including school children, season ticketholders and complimentary ticketholders.

The grandstand was well-filled for the third afternoon of harness racing Saturday and again at night for a performance by Joe Chitwood's Auto Daredevils. An afternoon performance by the Chitwood group was cancelled because the junior fair parade and racing program took up the entire afternoon.

Six fair board directors were re-elected and one new director named during the annual election held Saturday. Those re-elected include: Mearl Harrer, Lykens Township; Fred Hildebrand, Whetstone Township; Burton Honsberger, Texas Township; Richard Shealy, Liberty Township; William Bauer, Vernon Township, and Dr. A. C. Laishley, Crestline. Lester T. Ross, Polk Township, is the new director, succeeding L. N. Bennett. They will serve until Dec. 31, 1956.

Family Night Observed By Missionary Society

Family Night was featured when the Women's Missionary Society met Wednesday night in the Trinity Baptist Church parlors. Singing and prayer by Mrs. Henry Brown opened the meeting, and Mrs. Ralph Wingett presided for business.

A letter of appreciation was read from the children of the Vacation Bible School for refreshments served each day by women of the various circles. Devotions were by Julia Gorman from the fifteenth chapter of John.

For the program, a playlet, "Sounding the Keynote," was given by a group of Post High School Department girls, and Donna Wymer and Rosemary Sidenstricker sang, Mrs. Hazel Wintringham was in charge. Prayer was by Mrs. Herbert Brewer, and refreshments were served by two women fom each circle.

RETURN TO MICHIGAN

UPPER SANDUSKY — Mrs. Ben H. Mahank and son, Jack, returned to their home in Saginaw, Mich. Wednesday, after a three weeks visit with Mrs. Mahank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Quaintance in Upper Sandusky.

TELEVISION ANTENNA HIT

UPPER SANDUSKY — Lightning hit the television antenna at the Franklin Tilton home here at 12:40 a.m. Saturday and caused an estimated $350 damage. Apparently following the lead-in wire, the bolt damaged wiring and plumbing. The main water line at the basement meter was cracked. Some basement wiring was burned and bulbs and fuses were burned out. There was some schorched siding, but no fire, where the lightning followed the TV lead-in.

Some wasps make their nests out of paper which they manufacture themselves.

Pierce Shuts Out New York; Williams Blasts Homer

Bombers Held to Three Safeties by Chisox Ace

By JOE RIECHLER
AP Sports Writer

Whether Chicago's Billy Pierce is the best left-handed pitcher in baseball is open to argument but there is no doubt where the White Sox would be today without him.

The 25-year-old ace, sore arm and all, shut out the New York Yankees yesterday 5-0 to keep alive the flag hopes of the runner-up White Sox. The victory left Chicago seven games behind New York with 44 left to play.

Sunday proved a great day for the "big names" of baseball. Ted Williams, making only his second appearance at bat for Boston since his return from Korea, smashed a towering 420-foot home run into the distant centerfield bleachers at Fenway Park. Williams was serving as a pinch hitter against Cleveland's Mike Garcia in the seventh inning.

Despite Ted's 325th round-tripper of his career, the Red Sox bowed to Cleveland and Mike Garcia, who coasted to his 14th victory behind a 9-3 score.

Stan Musial rapped his 17th home run with a teammate on base in the seventh to help the St. Louis Cardinals defeat the New York Giants 6-2 for a sweep of the three-game series.

Ralph Kiner blasted his 28th round-tripper to lead the Chicago Cubs to a second-game 6-5 victory after the Philadelphia Phillies had won the opener 7-0.

Duke Snider clouted his 23rd four-bagger with the bases loaded as the National League-leading Brooklyn Dodgers crushed the Cincinnati Redlegs 9-1.

Eddie Mathews, National League home run leader, smacked his 36th as the Milwaukee Braves swept both ends of a double-header from Pittsburgh 7-4 and 8-3.

Philadelphia's Gus Zernial took over the American League's home run lead, hitting his 28th and 29th as the Athletics defeated and tied the Detroit Tigers 4-3 and 8-8. Each game went 10 innings. Zernial's homer in the second game was a grand slammer in a pinch-hit role. He had to leave the opener with a pulled Achilles' tendon in his left heel.

Satchel Paige relieved St. Louis starter Duane Pillette to snuff out a Washington threat in the eighth and was credited with the first 3-0 game victory when the Browns tallied three times off Johnny Schmitz in the ninth. The Senators walked off with the second game 12-3.

Pierce's brilliant pitching was in the form of a lifesaver for the White Sox, whose pennant hopes were dampened considerably when the Yankees whipped them in the first three of the vital four-game series.

To make matters worse, Manager Paul Richards had announced Saturday that Pierce would not be available for the series. The little southpaw's arm was stiff and sore, he explained, as a result of a scoreless 6 2-3 innings relief job Wednesday after pitching nine innings of shutout ball Monday night.

"I can hardly raise my arm to comb my hair," Pierce told a reporter in the visitors' dugout at Yankee Stadium before Saturday's double-header.

An overnight miracle must have occurred because Pierce permitted only three widely scattered hits and fanned eight to run up his league-leading total to 137 strike-outs. It was his 15th victory and his fifth shutout. He now owns a consecutive scoreless inning streak of 24 2-3 and a low earned-run average of 2.41.

Showing no signs of folding, the Braves pounded out 26 hits in their double victory over Pittsburgh to cut Brooklyn's first-place margin to seven games. Andy Pafko slammed a pair of homers in the nightcap to enable Jim Wilson to coast to his fourth triumph.

Joe Presko, who previously had lost three straight to New York, hurled a five-hitter against the Giants to move the Cardinals into a third-place tie with the Phillies.

Philadelphia's battery—pitcher Bob Miller and catcher Smoky Burgess—get nine hits between them as the young right-hander hurled a six-hit shutout over the Cubs in the opener. Burgess slammed a home run, two doubles and two singles in five times at bat. Bill Serena's pinch single off Curt Simmons with the bases loaded in the ninth gave the Cubs the second game 6-5 victory.

Ray Murray drove in the Athletics' winning run in the opener with a single in the 10th. After the Tigers had taken an 8-7 lead in the top of the 10th of the nightcap, the A's tied the score on singles by Loren Babe and Eddie Robinson and Cas Michaels' long fly. The game was halted by Pennsylvania's curfew law and will be replayed at a later date.

Country Club Linksmen Prep For Title Play

Golfers at the Marion Country Club were ready for second round play in the club championship matches this week. First round play was completed last week.

Class A matches this week are as follows: John Rife against John Dugan, Bob Graham against Bob Hastings, Connie Line against L. E. Oberlander and Jack Vornholt against Newt Minard. All won their first round matches. In Class B play Bob Wopan will play John Waddell, Thayer Martin takes on Jack Kinter, Bill Charle faces Sherm Haldeman and Joe Scandling meets Lou Cummins. John Smith meets Cline Welch and H. J. Grigsby faces Robert Mason in Class C.

In a match with the Mar-O-Del Course Sunday at the Country Club, the home golfers notched a 28-26 win. Two weeks ago the Mar-O-Del team had won on its home course. John Rife of the Country Club turned in the low score, a 75.

Golfers at the Country Club Saturday held their annual "Beat the Pro" tourney. Jack Stoddard, the pro, shot a 69 round for the golfers to shoot at. Eight golfers, all getting their regular handicaps, turned in lower net scores. They included John Waddell and L. E. Oberlander, with 68's, Bob Cripps with a 67, Bill Foster and Dr. Richard Morgan with 68's, Dr. Dan Brickley and Cline Welch with 67's and Harold Grigsby with a 68.

GI Post Bows In Tournament

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp blanked Marion G. I. Post 4-0 Saturday night in district softball tournament play at Galion. In the second game Tower Vets of Shelby dumped Galion Perfection Steel 9-4.

Bud Thorpe of the GI Post turned in a three-hit performance but received no help from his teammates in the run department and found the loss dumped in his lap. After one run had come across in the first, Bill McCarrik of Gorman-Rupp slashed a four-bagger with one man on. In the third another was scored by the winners on two singles and a stolen base.

Joe Roseberry got the only hit for the GI Post in the fourth inning. Regula was the winning pitcher for Gorman-Rupp striking out 12 batters. Thorpe struck out seven. Mansfield committeed four errors to Marion's two.

Tonight in tournament play K & W Plumbing of Marion will meet Faultless Rubber of Ashland in the first game and Sons of Herman of Mansfield play Garber Printers of Ashland in the second. The third game of the evening will be between two Marion clubs, Smitty's All-Stars and Osco. The first two will be quarter-final games and the third will be a second round game.

SHORT SPORTS
By John Short

With baseball entering the final stages of its campaign, football is beginning to pop into the daily conversation.

First grid action of the year will take place Friday when the annual North-South All-Star game is held at Canton and the College All-Stars clash with the Detroit Lions at Chicago's Soldiers' Field.

Locally college gridders are readying themselves to return to action. Lloyd "Punk" Williams, former Harding star, was one of 55 gridders from Miami University who received invitations for pre-school training from Coach Ara Parseghian. Punk has been a stalwart with the Redskins for the past two years.

SHORT

Parseghian urged his boys to "do plenty of running and report in really good shape." He has asked them to check in on Aug. 30 for room assignments. Grid practice will be started Sept. 1 starting date set by the Mid-American Conference.

Williams is a sure bet to hold down one of the guard positions when the season opens. Herb Jones of Bucyrus is expected to be a strong contender for the starting fullback role.

DOWN AT DELAWARE, Coach Glenn Fraser expects to welcome 27 lettermen from last year's squad. Harry Dowler Jr., 21-year-old Marion senior, will be shooting for a guard berth with the Bishops. Harold Davis of Ashley and John Evans of Marysville are two of the lettermen. Davis is an end while Evans runs from a halfback slot. Bill Wolfe, 172-pounder from Upper Sandusky, will also be seeking a backfield berth.

Carl Peggs of Fostoria, who ripped through Harding for three years, is tabbed as the best backfield prospect. He was the Bishops' big noise last year as a freshman and will report in around 170 pounds.

Frazier is in the dark about his prospects. No spring training was held and the crop of freshmen are an unknown factor. The coach is hoping for a repeat of Peggs' performance of last year from one of the frosh.

OSU Swimmer Finishes Tour of Duty in Korea

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Cpl. Tom Whiteleather, star swimmer from Canton, is due home this week from a 10-month tour of duty in Korea.

YOUNG KINER GETS THE ATTENTION. Nine-day-old Michael Ralph Kiner is the center of attention as he is held by his dad, Ralph Kiner, the Chicago Cubs home run hitting outfielder in their Chicago apartment. Mrs. Kiner, the former Nancy Chaffee of tennis fame, shows the youngster a toy baseball and bat.

Meyer Limits Redlegs to 3 Hits, Wins 9-1

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Cincinnati's Redlegs, who have given away their last six games, play a charity game tonight with the St. Louis Browns.

Manager Rogers Hornsby will use pitchers Hermie Wehmeier, Frank Smith and Clyde King against the last-place American leaguers.

The Redlegs left Crosley Field in no blaze of glory. They could manage only three hits — a homer and two singles—as Brooklyn swamped the Rhinelanders yesterday, 9-1.

Ted Kluszewski, second man in the senior circuit home run derby, hit his 34th of the year. The singles were well spaced out and did no harm to the Brooklyn cause.

Duke Snider, the Brooks' center fielder, poked out a bases-loaded homer in the fourth. Junior Gilliam's triple in the same inning sent pitcher Russ Meyer across home plate and pitcher Joe Nuxhall to the showers.

Meyer was credited with his 12th win against 5 losses. It was his first victory over the Redlegs since 1950. Nuxhall took the loss, giving the Hamilton, Ohio, hurler a 5-8 record.

Roy McMillan, top defensive shortstop, left the game in the ninth after Junior spiked him in the left foot and hit him in the eye as they collided. The Dodger was sliding into second base.

CAPTAINS NORTH SQUAD

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Bob Khoenle, Massillon High School's All-Ohio end, will be captain of the North squad in the North-South All-Star scholastic football game here Friday night. Khoenle will enroll at Purdue this fall. The South coach, Jim McDonald, said his captain would be named tomorrow.

Double Main Go Booked at Armory

Promoter Les Fishbaugh has booked a double main event for the Thursday night wrestling card at the armory.

Dano O'Shocker will go against Nick Roberts in one two out of three falls bout over a 60-minute time limit. O'Shocker has never been whipped in the Marion ring. Roberts whipped Shiek Araby last week.

Joe Wolfe, popular Columbus grappler, will appear in the second 60-minute bout. He will meet Marco Polo for two out of three falls.

Hercules McIntre and Ray Stevens will wrestle in the 30-minute opener. The first match will get under way at 8:30.

Ted Connects, Stands Erupt Into Cheers

By BUD WEEKS

BOSTON (AP) — Baseball fans and American League pitchers need wonder no longer. Ted Williams still packs the home run wallop that made him one of the game's greatest stars.

The tall Red Sox slugger's convincing answer to all baseball was a towering, 400-foot pinch homer of Cleveland right-hander Mike Garcia before 27,000 wildly cheering fans yesterday at Fenway Park.

The ex-Marine jet pilot, who switched from flying togs to baseball flannels less than two weeks ago, smashed a waist-high 3-1 pitch a half dozen rows up in the right centerfield seats behind the Boston bullpen.

It didn't make much difference in the game. The Sox capped a three-run rally in the seventh against Garcia, but he coasted to a 9-3 victory.

But as the $100,000-a-year star trotted around the bases in his long-legged jog, it could have been the climax of a World Series game.

The throng got to its feet, clapping and yelling for at least three minutes while excitement tingled throughout the park.

It was like old times. Like Williams' last time at bat April 30, 1952, when he won the game 5-3 with a homer of Detroit's Dizzy Trout.

And it was like old times as "The Kid" — who'll be 35 next Oct. 30—failed to tip his hat after his home run. He ran, head down and sober-faced, into the dugout, which erupted into a mob scene.

Williams has hit 324 other major league homers, but none of them had more dramatic impact than this one.

"It was the greatest ovation I ever witnessed on a ball field," said Manager Lou Boudreau, "and I can tell you that Ted appreciated it."

Splinter Drives Garcia Offering Out of Park

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Indians were home today from a road trip that, in the eyes of most fans, erased them completely as 1953 pennant contenders.

Now, their only probable chance for fame in the stretch is in the roll of spoilers. And with second place Chicago seven games behind the leading New Yorkers, there may not be much spoiling to be done.

The best chance of a struggle appears to be for second place, with the Indians four games from that spot as they open a three-game series with the White Sox here tomorrow night.

Cleveland's road trip, which ended yesterday with a 9-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox, was composed of seven triumphs and six defeats.

Tonight, Art Houtteman will hurl for the Tribe in its annual sandlot benefit against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Cleveland Stadium. Bob Lemon is expected to start tomorrow night in the opener against Chicago, with Early Wynn and Mike Garcia to follow in the next two games.

Garcia had little trouble winning yesterday's game as the Indians pounded out 14 hits, including home runs by Bob Avila, Joe Tipton and Bob Kennedy. But he permitted one Boston homer that made more of an uproar than all three of Cleveland's four - baggers combined.

That one was to pinch hitter Ted Williams, making his second appearance at the plate since his return from Korea. Williams took three balls and a called strike in the seventh inning, then hammered Garcia's next offering into the stands, back of the bullpen. It was his 325th homer and drew a three-minute standing ovation from the fans.

Worsham Takes World With 140-Yard Approach

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Lew Worsham has the answer to a question that has bothered golfers since the game was invented.

"Is a hole-in-one luck or skill?"

Worsham didn't make an ace. He did sink a long approach, estimated by onlookers as 140 yards, for an eagle 2 on the last hole yesterday to beat out Chandler Harper by one stroke for the $25,000 first prize in the "World" golf championship at Tam O'Shanter.

That shot, made with a sand wedge while Harper was being congratulated on winning the tournament, was worth $15,000. It undoubtedly was the most lucrative single shot in the history of the ancient game.

Let's create the drama it all entailed:

1. It meant winning the "world" championship of golf, a title lacking in prestige but compensating in cold cash—a first prize of $25,000, tops in golf. Second place paid $15,000 less.

2. Harper, who had lost two other tournaments this season by one-stroke margins, had just finished with a 70 for 279, nine under Tam O'Shanter par, by pitching a No. 9 iron shot 20 inches from the cup for a cinch birdie 3.

3. Television cameras were trained on Harper. Radio commentators were praising his finish. He stood there by the 18th green being cheered for winning, on record and before 10,000 or 15,000 frenzied spectators.

4. Then came Worsham. He had just dropped a 7-foot putt for a birdie 3 on the 71st hole. He needed another birdie 3 on the 410-yard 72nd to tie Harper and send the showdown into a sudden death playoff.

5. Worsham belted a tremendous drive.

Jimmy Demaret, famous pro, was on radio at the 18th green, lauding Harper's finish.

7. About 140 yards in front of the green, Worsham pulled a sand wedge from his bag.

8. He fired away. The ball lit on the lower part of the green, bounced about three times and covered 35 to 40 feet before it rolled into the cup.

9. Harper stared in disbelief.

10. Demaret muttered one word after a pause: "Gawddamn."

11. Approximately 500 fans rush toward Worsham and lifted him to their shoulders.

Old-time observers contended that it was the greatest shot in the game's history—which can be debated endlessly in the hot-stove league.

They said it will rub out that memorable 235-yard spoon shot by Gene Sarazen in 1935 that bounded into the 69th hole for a double eagle 2 during the last round of the Masters at Augusta.

(That one gave Sarazen a deadlock with Craig Wood at the end, and Gene went on to win the title in a playoff.)

Wayside Wins Crawford Fair Feature Event

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Wayside, a bay horse from the stable of A. P. Topper, Bucyrus, won the featured $750 free for all pace in the closing day's harness races at the Carwford County Fair Saturday afternoon.

Wayside, driven by Floyd Hannis, won both events, coming from behind in the first heat to pass Burbon Castle and nosing out Casabianca in the home stretch in the second heat. He turned in the best time of the day with a 2:06 two fifths mark in the closing dash.

Double heat winners also featured the other three races on the card, which were witnessed by a full grandstand.

Wayfarer, a bay mare, owned by W. W. Vandeveer of Cleveland and driven by William Repp, took both heats of the 22 class pace. In this event, Sidney Jane, a chestnut mare from the Cheney Brothers stable in Richwood finished eighth in the first dash and third in the windup.

The 22 class trot was won by Evening Song, owned and piloted by Dave McClain, Lima. In the second heat, she literally nosed out Tillys Filly, a bay mare, owned by Charles D. England of Marion. The Marion mare almost caught Evening Song at the wire in a photo finish. Another Marion, horse, Clayland, owned by L. M. and J. M. Wickersham, finished ninth and fourth.

A Cardington entry, Miss Traffic Officer, owned by Mrs. Thelma R. Coder, and driven by her husband, won both heats of the classified trot.

Trophies, donated for the Crestline Day racing events, were furnished by Groh Oldsmobile Sales, Cheney Motor Sales, Marshall Furniture Co., and Lesseuer's store, all of Crestline.

Lack of Fans Brings Postponement of Races

Races at the Marion Speedway were cancelled Sunday due to the small number of spectators which turned out for the show. Those fans appearing at the track were issued rain checks for next Sunday afternoon's events. Two 25-lap features will be held that day, Cecil Addams, promoter announced.

Addams also said races would be held on Sunday afternoons for the balance of the summer. Time trials will begin at 1 p.m. with the first race getting under way at 2:30. Time trials for the championship 200-lap race on Aug. 23 will begin at 11:30 with the first race scheduled for 2 p.m.

Morrow Legion Squad, Marysville Split Two

IBERIA — Morrow County's American Legion Junior baseball team bowed to a visiting Marysville club 6-4 here Sunday but rallied for a 3-0 win in the second portion of the twin bill to run its season's mark to 15-12.

Ed Stall held Marysville to three hits in shutting them out in the abbreviated second contest which went five frames. It was Stall's second shutout in two Sundays, the first chalked up against Marion, 9-0, a week ago.

George Harbold started on the mound for Marysville and was relieved by Bud Scheiderer in the fourth. Lowell Maxwell was the Marysville catcher and Bill Rostron was behind the plate for Morrow.

The second tilt was limited to five innings due to Marysville's long trip home and a delay of the first game due to rain.

Marysville came up with four runs in the seventh to top Morrow in the opener. After an error and three walks had brought in one run, Blumenschein cleared the bases with a double to give Marysville the win. Dick Maidens, the Morrow catcher, got his team off to a flying start with a three-run homer in the third.

Maxwell had three hits in four tries for Marysville and Wayne Nauman also had three hits in four appearances at the plate for the losers. Marysville out hit Morrow, 9-8, and each team was charged with two errors. Marysville was also charged with one error in the second game.

Lowell Taylor and Maxwell were the Marysville battery. Nauman and Maidens formed Morrow's.

100,000 Watch Sports Autos At Lockbourne

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—More than 100,000 racing enthusiasts— a record crowd — were on hand yesterday as Fred M. Warner of Birmingham, Mich., swept to a victory in the feature race of the National Sports Car Races at nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Warner gunned his powerful Allard J2X over the 3½ runway track to edge out Coby Whitemore of Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., who finished second, and Robert H. Fergus of Columbus, who took third place.

Race officials said the attendance and the 168 entries both set new records for the 6-year-old events.

Another unofficial record was a single lap speed mark set in the featured fifth race by William C. Spear of Southport, Conn. Spear, driving a Ferrari American, was believed to have maintained a 99-plus-mile-per-hour average speed for one lap.

Official times and summaries were not to be computed until sometime today.

Warner's win in the final event gave him the overall championship for the day.

Bernard Kerner, 32, of Detroit, driving a Persche, was overall winner and Class F4 winner of the first race. James Simpson Jr., 48-year-old Wadsworth, Ill., driver, a former congressman, took the second race crown in his Osca in Class F1.

In the third event, Robert B. Ryberg, 38, of Pittsburgh, driving his Jaguar XK12pM in Class C2, was declared the overall victor.

Spear took the fourth race. An Allard car entered in the fourth race by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, commanding general of the Strategic Air Command which sponsors the races to give airmen better living conditions, went out with mechanical trouble early in the event.

Entry Deadline Near for 1953 Hambletonian

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—The names of some 20 three-year old trotters, each accompanied by a check for $1,000, were expected to be dropped into the entry box today for the 28th Hambletonian, which will be raced over Good Time Park's triangular track Wednesday.

The race figures to be the richest in the history of the trotting horse derby, exceeding the 1951 renewal when Mainliner took down the major share of $93,358.65. Only a score of entries are needed to push the value above the $100,000 mark.

As the four-day Grand Circuit meeting opened with 18 two-year old trotters and pacers scheduled for each of today's top events. Newport Star remained the strong favorite for the Hambletonian.

Ez Charles, Cuban Champ To Tangle

NEW YORK (AP)—Ezzard Charles, the ex-heavyweight champion who has been trying to come back, clashes with Nino Valdes at Miami Beach tomorrow night. Valdes is a gigantic Cuban who recently won the heavyweight title of his country by knocking out Omelio Agramonte.

Davis Cuppers Hear Protest From Trabert

NEW YORK (AP) — The Davis Cup selection committee, in no mood to take any more abuse, met today to straighten out the tempest involving the makeup of the United States doubles team.

Young Tony Trabert is the center of the controversy. He wants to play doubles with Bill Talbert. The committee wants him to team with Vic Seixas.

The committee has decided to take a firm stand and tell the University of Cincinnati student that he will play with Seixas—or else.

"We were as surprised as anyone when Tony teamed with Talbert during the Eastern Tournament at South Orange," said one highly placed member of the committee. "Like everyone, we assumed that he and Seixas would play together. We were flabbergasted when Tony began to pop off."

Trabert went on record as saying that he preferred Talbert as a doubles partner, that Talbert was a great doubles player, and that, furthermore, Seixas was erratic in doubles and he never knew what Vic was going to do next.

"Of course," said the committee member, "it's understandable why Tony wants to team with Talbert. Bill taught Tony practically all he knows about doubles play, and they've been a team for several years."

As far as the committee, headed by Lawrence Baker, is concerned, it merely is a matter of straightening Tony out. Unless someone presents a mighty strong argument against it, Trabert and Seixas will be the team in the coming tournaments and against Canada in the final round of the North American zone competition next month.

The Canadians defeated Cuba, 3-2, in the semifinal round which ended yesterday in Montreal.

Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall, Australia's gold Dust Twins, defeated Trabert and Talbert in the final of the Eastern doubles yesterday 6-2, 6-0, 6-4. This will be used as one of the main reasons for breaking up the Trabert-Talbert combination.

Holy Cross holds a one-game edge in its football series with Brown. The Crusaders have won 14, lost 13 while two ended in ties.

She won all three heats and her average time for the complete distance was 92.613 miles per hour. The previous best was 78.215 set by the IV when she won her first Gold Cup in 1950.

RABBIT FOOD

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Mrs. Bettie Brooks lives on Bettie Brooks Lane and has quite a problem. The 75-year-old widow grows and sells pansies, and wild rabbits have been invading the pansy beds. She's set traps but can't catch any rabbits. Seems she can't find anything the rabbits like better than pansies and they won't go in the traps when they can get pansies outside.

THIS LOVELY PERSON is U. S. Marine S/Sgt. Barbara Barnwell, shown in Henderson Hall barracks pool, Arlington, Va., just before receiving the Navy-Marine medal for bravery. The first woman ever to receive the heroism award, she saved three persons from drowning. Sgt. Barnwell is from Kansas City, Mo.
